FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Janus International Acquires Epic Doors

(July 14, 2009 – Temple, GA) – Janus International Corporation has announced the acquisition of Epic Doors LP in Anaheim, CA. Janus President David Curtis sites the strengthening of a national presence as a major force in the pairing of the companies. “Acquiring Epic Doors allows us greater accessibility and serviceability to all areas of the national self storage market. We are pleased to bring Epic’s industry knowledge and innovation into the Janus line of products,” says Curtis.

Epic Doors President Jeff Higashi will assume the role of President, Western Division, Self Storage. “Janus International’s national coverage paired with Epic Door’s strong Western Region presence will offer full-service to the self storage industry. We are very pleased to be a part of the Janus family,” states Higashi.

The company headquarters will remain in Temple, Georgia, while Epic Doors’ Anaheim location will become a product distribution center for the West Coast.
