Mini Storage Messenger Magazine Announces Facility of the Year Winners
Janus International doors are used for winning projects

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Temple, GA – January 11, 2017) Mini Storage Messenger, a publication dedicated to the self storage industry, has announced the winners of the 29th Annual Facility of the Year awards, honoring five facilities from across the globe. Recognized with each of the winning projects is Janus International, whose 3rd generation doors and self storage solutions were selected for their quality construction and long-term dependability.

Overall and Construction Winner: M3 Storage, Santiago, Chile
International Winner: Mr. Bodeguitas, San Salvador, El Salvador
Conversion Winner: Metro Storage, Northbrook, IL
New Facility: Tri-Village Self Storage, Columbus, OH
Renovation: AAAAA Rent-A-Space, Foster City, CA

“We are honored once again to be a part of this annual event in association with such highly regarded projects. This kind of recognition speaks to the advancements our company has made in the industry and why our customers worldwide trust us for their most important projects,” said Ramey Jackson, vice president of sales.

Each of the above winning facilities were created with unique designs and technological advancements in mind, using a variety of elements such as keyless locking features and recyclable mezzanines. The winners were announced in the December 2016 issue of Mini Storage Messenger Magazine.
