

Let's get this show on the other foot!	It's not over until hell freezes
Shed some light on the end of the tunnel	You can't build an ivory tower, without killing a few elephants
Never a day goes by without shooting a dead horse	Sweep the cat under a bag
You've made your bed, now let sleeping dogs lie.	Good tradesman never blames the sharpest tool in the shed
Soup to oranges	We'll burn that bridge when we get to it
Drinking the Kool Aid from the fire hose	Butter up the hatches!
Out of debt; out of mind.	If the shoe fits, eat it too.
It's about party time!!	If at first you don't succeed, you're a rotten egg
Early bird gets a can of worms	We'll cross that bridge carrying a big stick. You mess with the bull, you get the china shop.
Don't let the bedbugs bite you in the ass.	Make hay while the iron is hot
You can lead a bear to the woods, can you still beat it?	When it rains, it's cats and dogs
Alls well in love and war	Live and let learn
Like counting sheep to the slaughter	Kick the bucket list
Got away with it by the skin of my pants	The later they laugh, the harder they fall
Let's throw the book at the end of your labor	At the drop of a penny
It's no use crying over spilled beans.	Nice guys laugh last
The road to hell in a row.	I may be dumb but I'm not a rocket science
Remember to put your pants on one leg at a time, before you walk a mile in their shoes.	Where there's a will, there are skeletons in the closet
A stitch in time keeps the doctor away.	Cream of the litter
The Road to Hell is Paved with a Handbasket	There are plenty of fish in the barrel, but you're scraping the bottom
Be yourself, everyone else is takin' a dump.	As easy as falling off a cake
No sweat of my browlf fishes had bicycles, then beggars would ride	I'm going to see a man about a gift horse in the mouth.
An apple a day keeps me on my toes	It ain't over until the fat lady has her cake and eats it
A rolling stone tells no tales.	The proof is in the details and the devil is in the pudding
A watched pot boils twice a day	You can take that to the bank and smoke it.
Let's hit this show on the road!	There's plenty of fish in the barrel
The limit is beating a dead fish in a sky barrel.	There's no business like nobody's business
No sweat of my back	A watched pot never calls the kettle black.
It takes a village to raise an idiot	A burning bridge gathers no moss
Let's not mince metaphors	This is gonna be a walk in the cake

I trust ya about as far as I can throw my back out	The road to a mountain is paved with molehills
Don't count your chickens before you're out of the woods	A picture's worth a thousand birds in the hand.
If wishes were fishes you'd feed a man forever	A stitch in time keeps the doctor away
Eat shit and die a hero.	A light at the end of your rope
Keep your gaps bridged, and your bridges burnt	It's like herding cats out of the bag.
I was so shocked, I almost fell off my high horse.	It's all fun and games til the cows come home
Give a man a fish, nothing gained.	He's not the smartest cookie in the shed.
A needle in the haystack is better than two in the bush	The chicken doesn't fall far from the tree
Work like nobody's business	It's not rocket surgery
There no time to waste like the present!	That left a bad taste in my ears.
The elephant in the room never forgets
