1. THE CONTRACT
These General Provisions and all other terms and conditions set forth in the purchase order, together with any documents incorporated herein or on the purchase order by reference, collectively constitute the “Contract” for Buyer’s procurement from Seller of the goods, services and other deliverables (collectively, the “Deliverables”) described in the Contract. Seller’s acceptance in any manner, including commencement of performance, is an acceptance of the Contract as written, regardless of any different or additional terms and conditions submitted by Seller, which are hereby rejected.

2. DEFINITIONS
   a. “Buyer” is the legal entity identified on the purchase order.
   b. “Buyer’s Authorized Representative” is the person authorized to execute the Contract, make changes to the Contract, and otherwise bind Buyer in connection with the Contract.
   c. “Seller” is the legal entity identified on the purchase order.
   d. Unless otherwise specified, Buyer’s “customer” is to be read as including Buyer’s direct customer and, when Buyer’s direct customer is not the end user, all higher-tier contractors and the ultimate end user, including but not limited to the U.S. Government.
   e. Unless otherwise specified, “days” are to be read as calendar days.

3. CONTRACT DIRECTION
   a. Only Buyer’s Authorized Representative has authority on behalf of Buyer to make changes to this Contract or otherwise bind Buyer in connection with this Contract.
   b. The identity of Buyer’s Authorized Representative will be indicated on the face of the purchase order, or by Buyer’s subsequent written notification, making specific reference to this clause of this Contract.
   c. All changes and amendments must be in writing, specifically identified as a change or amendment, and executed by Buyer’s Authorized Representative.
   d. Buyer’s engineering, program and technical personnel may from time to time exchange information with Seller’s personnel, including but not limited to rendering assistance, holding reviews, giving technical advice, clarifying requirements, or correcting mistakes and misunderstandings. No such exchange shall be a change under the "Changes" clause of this Contract and shall not be the basis for equitable adjustment, except as specifically authorized by Buyer’s Authorized Representative in accordance with the Changes clause.
   e. Except as otherwise provided herein, all notices to be furnished by Seller shall be in writing and sent to Buyer’s Authorized Representative.

4. PRICE
The prices of Deliverables are set forth on the purchase order. Unless otherwise specified, prices for goods are FOB destination and include all packaging and transportation costs to the delivery location, insurance, customs duties, fees and taxes, except for applicable sales tax. Sales tax must be separately stated on Seller’s invoice, but shall not be charged if Buyer has furnished a valid exemption certificate or other evidence of exemption. No increase in prices is effective, whether due to increased material, labor or transportation costs or otherwise, without Buyer’s Authorized Representative’s prior written consent.

5. DELIVERY SCHEDULE AND QUANTITIES
   a. Time is of the essence, and Seller shall strictly adhere to the delivery schedule specified in the purchase order of this Contract. In the event of any anticipated or actual delay, Seller shall: (i) promptly notify Buyer in writing of the reasons for the delay and the actions being taken to minimize the delay; (ii) provide Buyer with a written recovery schedule; and (iii) if requested by Buyer, ship via air or other expedited routing, at no additional cost to Buyer, to avoid or minimize delay to the maximum extent possible. Notwithstanding Seller’s notification and recovery plan, Buyer is not obligated to accept Seller’s recovery plan, and Buyer does not waive any rights it otherwise has regarding late delivery.
   b. Seller shall not deliver goods prior to the scheduled delivery dates unless authorized by Buyer’s Authorized Representative in writing.
   c. Seller shall not deliver goods in excess of the purchase order quantities unless authorized by Buyer’s Authorized Representative in writing. In the event of excess delivery without Buyer authorization, Seller shall reimburse Buyer for reasonable costs associated with storage and return of the excess.

6. PACKING, SHIPPING AND DELIVERY LOCATION
   a. Seller shall pack goods in accordance with Buyer’s instructions and common carrier requirements to prevent damage. Buyer may charge Seller for damage resulting from improper packing.
   b. Unless the Contract specifies shipping terms other than FOB destination, then in addition to any other shipping instructions, Seller shall forward goods freight prepaid to the delivery location shown on the purchase order. Seller shall make the transportation arrangements, pay the shipping costs, and remain responsible for the goods until the goods are delivered and the Buyer takes possession at the destination.
   c. If the Contract specifies FOB origin (place of shipment), then Seller shall ship in accordance to Buyer’s shipping instructions. For goods shipped within the United States, Seller shall make no declaration concerning the value of the goods except on goods where the tariff rating is dependent upon released or declared value. In such event, Seller shall release or declare such value at the maximum value within the lowest rating. Upon Buyer’s request, Seller will identify packaging charges showing material and labor costs for container fabrication.
   d. For each shipment of goods, Seller shall provide Buyer, in writing, advance warning and notice (in addition to including appropriate labels on goods, containers and packing) of any hazardous or restricted material that is an ingredient or a part of the shipment, together with special handling instructions to advise logistics providers, handlers of the goods and personnel of how to exercise care and precaution to comply with applicable laws and prevent bodily injury or property damage in the handling, transportation, processing, use or disposal of the goods, containers and packing.
   e. In the event Seller ships goods from outside the customs territory of the United States, the goods will be imported under the terms of sale DDP Buyer facility Incoterms 2010. Seller shall communicate its customs clearance instructions to its International Third-Party supplier prior to the goods’ arrival into the United States to avoid any delays in delivery to Buyer. Under no circumstances is Buyer to be listed as the importer of record (or consignee for shipments delivered via courier) on customs documents for any orders shipped directly to Buyer from a foreign location and Seller expressly agrees to accept all liability associated with said customs entries for any such orders.

7. CHANGES
   a. Buyer’s Authorized Representative may at any time, in writing, and without notice to sureties, direct changes within the general scope of this Contract in any of the following: (i) technical requirements and descriptions, specifications, statement of work, drawings or designs; (ii) shipment or packing methods; (iii) place of delivery, inspection or acceptance; (iv) reasonable adjustments in quantities or delivery schedules or both; (v) Buyer-furnished property; (vi) terms and conditions of this Contract required to meet Buyer’s obligations under its contracts; (vii) description of services to be performed; and (viii) place and time of performance of services. Seller shall comply promptly with such written direction.

   b. If such change increases or decreases the cost or time required to perform this Contract, Buyer and Seller shall negotiate an equitable adjustment in the price or schedule, or both, to reflect the increase or decrease.

   c. If Seller intends to assert a claim for a price or schedule adjustment, Seller must deliver to Buyer a notice within twenty (15) days, and deliver a fully supported proposal to Buyer within forty-five (45) days, after Seller’s receipt of Buyer’s change direction.

   d. If Seller believes that conduct or circumstances other than Buyer’s written change order constitutes a change, Seller must notify Buyer immediately after it knows of such conduct or circumstances. Seller shall be entitled to a price adjustment as a result of such change only for costs incurred (i) after Seller’s notification and (ii) after receipt of Buyer’s Authorized Representative’s written instructions to proceed. The amount of such price adjustment, as well as any schedule adjustment, shall be negotiated.

   e. Buyer may, at its sole discretion, consider any claim regardless of when asserted.

   f. Seller has the burden to support any claimed adjustments in price or schedule. Further, Buyer shall have the right to verify the amount of Seller’s claim in accordance with the Financial Records and Audit Article of this Contract. Failure of the Parties to agree upon any adjustment shall be handled as a Dispute and shall not excuse Seller from performing promptly in accordance with Buyer’s direction.

   g. If Seller seeks the cost of property made obsolete or excess by a change, Seller is obligated to mitigate such costs, and Buyer may direct the disposition of the property.

8. SUSPENSION OF WORK
   a. Buyer’s Authorized Representative may, by written order, suspend all or part of the work to be performed under this Contract for a period not to exceed one hundred (100) days. Within such period of any suspension of work, Buyer shall: (i) cancel the suspension of work order; (ii) terminate this Contract in accordance with the “Termination for Convenience” Article of this Contract; (iii) terminate this Contract in accordance with the “Termination for Default” Article of this Contract if grounds for default exist; or (iv) extend the stop work period.

   b. Seller shall resume work whenever a suspension is canceled. Buyer and Seller shall negotiate an equitable adjustment in the price or schedule or both if: (i) this Contract is not terminated; (ii) the suspension results in a change in Seller's cost of performance or ability to meet the Contract delivery schedule; and (iii) Seller submits a claim for adjustment within fifteen (15) days after the suspension is canceled.
9. TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE.
   a. Buyer’s Authorized Representative, by written notice, may terminate this Contract for convenience at any time, in whole or in part, without cause, and such termination shall not constitute a default. Seller shall be reimbursed for actual, reasonable, substantiated and allowable costs, plus a reasonable profit for work performed to date of termination. Buyer shall have all rights accruing both at law and in equity as of the date of termination, including Buyer’s right to title and possession of any goods paid for. Buyer may take immediate possession of all work for which Seller seeks reimbursement.
   b. If this Contract is terminated as a result of the termination for convenience of a U.S. Government Contract and if an applicable U.S. Government termination for convenience clause is incorporated by reference into this Contract, (i) the rights, duties, and obligations of the parties shall be determined in accordance with that clause and (ii) determinations by the U.S. Government that are binding on Buyer shall be binding on Seller. If no applicable U.S. Government termination for convenience clause is incorporated by reference into this Contract, the rights, duties, and obligations of the parties shall be determined as set forth in paragraph “a” of this Article.

10. TERMINATION FOR DEFAULT
   a. Buyer’s Authorized Representative may, by written notice of default to Seller, terminate this Contract in whole or in part, said termination to be effective immediately, if (i) Seller fails to deliver the Deliverables within the time specified in this Contract or (ii) in the event of Seller’s bankruptcy, suspension of business, insolvency, appointment of a receiver for Seller’s property or business, or any assignment, reorganization or arrangement by Seller for the benefit of its creditors.
   b. Buyer’s Authorized Representative may, by written notice of default to Seller, terminate this Contract in whole or in part, said termination to be effective ten (10) days after Seller’s receipt of said notice, if (i) Seller fails to perform any other Contract provisions or fails to make progress so as to endanger performance of this Contract and (ii) within ten (10) days after receipt of notice from Buyer specifying the failure, does not cure the failure or provide Buyer with a written detailed cure plan that is acceptable to Buyer.
   c. Seller shall continue work not terminated.
   d. Buyer may require Seller to transfer title and deliver to Buyer any completed goods. Buyer shall pay the price set forth in this Contract for completed goods or services delivered and accepted.
   e. Buyer may require Seller to transfer title and deliver to Buyer any partially completed goods, materials, parts, tools, dies, jigs, fixtures, plans, drawings, information and contract rights that Seller produced or acquired for the terminated portion of this Contract. At Buyer’s direction, Seller shall also preserve property in its possession in which Buyer or its customer has an interest. Seller shall be reimbursed for actual, reasonable, substantiated and allowable costs, but without profit, for items delivered to Buyer under this paragraph and for Seller’s cost of preserving property as directed by Buyer.
   f. Buyer may reprocure goods or services similar to those terminated, and Seller shall be liable to Buyer for any excess cost for such similar goods or services.
   g. Buyer may withhold from any amount due under this Contract any sum Buyer determines to be necessary to protect Buyer or Buyer’s customer against loss because of outstanding liens or claims of former lien holders.
h. The rights and remedies of Buyer in this Article are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law or in equity, or under this Contract.

i. If, after cancellation, it is determined that Seller was not in default, the rights and remedies of the Parties shall be as if the Contract had been terminated according to the "Termination for Convenience" Article of this Contract.

11. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither Buyer nor Seller shall be liable for failure to perform under this Contract if such failure is due to events which are (i) beyond the reasonable control and without the fault or negligence of Buyer or Seller, or beyond the reasonable control and without the fault or negligence of Buyer’s or Seller’s subcontractor, as the case may be, and (ii) occur after the execution of this Contract and prevent its performance; provided such failure to perform shall only be excused for the duration of such intervening event and shall be subject to the Buyer’s right to terminate this Contract for convenience. Examples of such force majeure events include, but are not limited to: a strike or labor dispute, war or act of war (whether or not an actual declaration thereof is made), insurrection, riot or civil commotion, act of public enemy, fire, flood, or other act of God, or any act of governmental authority (including export restrictions). 14. ACCEPTANCE AND REJECTION

a. No notice of acceptance, payment, passage of title, prior test or inspection, failure or delay in performing any test or inspection, or failure to discover any defect or other nonconformance shall relieve Seller of any obligations under this Contract or impair any rights or remedies of Buyer, including revocation of acceptance.
b. If Seller delivers nonconforming goods, Buyer may at its option and at Seller's expense: (i) require Seller to promptly correct or replace the goods; or (ii) return the goods for credit or refund. Return to Seller of nonconforming goods and redelivery to Buyer of corrected or replaced goods shall be at Seller's expense.

Counterfeit goods shall be deemed nonconforming to this Contract.

b. Seller shall implement an appropriate strategy to ensure that goods furnished to Buyer under this Contract are not Counterfeit. Seller’s strategy shall include, but is not limited to, the direct procurement of items from OEMs or authorized suppliers, conducting approved testing or inspection to ensure the authenticity of items, and, when items are to be procured from non-authorized suppliers, obtaining from such non-authorized suppliers appropriate certificates of conformance that provide one or more of the following: (i) the OEM’s original certificate of conformance for the item; (ii) sufficient records providing unbroken supply chain traceability to the OEM; or (iii) test and inspection records demonstrating the item’s authenticity.

Unless otherwise authorized by Buyer, Seller shall issue a separate original invoice for each delivery. Each invoice shall include Buyer’s Contract number and line item number.    a. If this Contract is a subcontract under a U.S. Government contract to which the Truth in Negotiations Act applies, and if Seller, its subcontractor, or prospective subcontractor fails to submit accurate, complete and current cost or pricing data, and, as a result of that failure, Buyer incurs a price reduction from its customer, Buyer may recover from Seller an amount equal to the price reduction.
   b. If, as a result of Seller’s or its subcontractor’s foregoing conduct, Buyer must pay a penalty or interest, Buyer may recover from Seller the amount of that penalty and interest.

20. CONFIDENTIAL, PROPRIETARY, AND TRADE SECRET INFORMATION AND MATERIALS

   b. Buyer and Seller shall each use Proprietary Information and Materials of the other only in the performance of and for the purpose of this Contract, other contracts between the Parties, and Buyer’s contract with its customer, if any. However, despite any other obligations or restrictions imposed by this Article or any prior agreement, Buyer shall have the right to use and reproduce Seller's Proprietary Information and Materials internal to Buyer, regardless of when disclosed. Buyer shall further have the right to, use, disclose, reproduce and make derivative works of Seller’s Proprietary Information and Materials (i) to fulfill Buyer’s obligations under, and (ii) for the purposes of testing, certification, use, sale or support of any goods delivered under, this Contract, other contracts with Seller and Buyer’s contract with its customer, if any. Any such use, disclosure, reproduction or derivative work by Buyer shall, whenever appropriate, include a restrictive legend suitable for the particular circumstances. The restrictions on disclosure or use of Proprietary Information and Materials shall apply to all materials derived by the receiving Party or others on its behalf from the disclosing Party’s Proprietary Information and Materials. In addition to disclosures permitted hereunder, a receiving Party may disclose received Proprietary Information and Materials in response to a subpoena or court order duly issued in a judicial or legislative process, provided that the receiving Party has used reasonable efforts to give the disclosing Party advance written notice of any such disclosure requirement and to reasonably cooperate with the disclosing Party in protecting against any such disclosure and/or obtaining a protective order narrowing its scope.
c. Upon Buyer’s request at any time, and in any event upon the completion, termination or cancellation of this Contract, Seller shall return to Buyer all of Buyer’s Proprietary Information and Materials and all materials derived therefrom, unless specifically directed otherwise in writing by Buyer’s Authorized Representative. Seller shall not at any time (i) dispose of (as scrap or otherwise) any goods, parts or other materials containing, conveying, embodying or made in accordance with or by reference to any Proprietary Information and Materials of Buyer without the prior written authorization of Buyer’s Authorized Representative or (ii) make, use, or sell any goods, parts or other materials containing, conveying, embodying or made in accordance with or by reference to any Proprietary Information and Materials of Buyer without notifying Buyer in writing before any such planned making, using, or selling activity and executing an agreement between the Parties requiring payment by Seller of a reasonable license fee to Buyer as consideration for each use of such Proprietary Information and Materials of Buyer, unless Buyer’s Authorized Representative has provided prior written authorization to Seller. Prior to disposing of such goods, parts or other materials as scrap, Seller shall render them unusable. Buyer shall have the right to audit Seller’s compliance with this Article.

d. Seller may disclose Proprietary Information and Materials of Buyer to its subcontractors as required for the performance of this Contract, provided that each such subcontractor first agrees in writing to obligations no less restrictive than those imposed upon Seller under this Article. Seller shall be liable to Buyer for any breach of such obligation by such subcontractor.

e. The provisions of this Article are effective notwithstanding the application of any restrictive legends or notices to Proprietary Information and Materials. The provisions of this Article shall survive the performance, completion, termination or cancellation of this Contract.

f. Seller agrees that any technical data and computer software furnished to Buyer as a required deliverable under this Contract will be free from confidential, proprietary, or restrictive-use markings that are not expressly permitted by applicable FAR or other U.S. Government agency FAR supplement clauses incorporated in this Contract (“Nonconforming Markings”). Buyer may notify Seller of a Nonconforming Marking, and if Seller fails to remove or correct such marking within sixty (60) days after such notification, Buyer may, at Seller’s expense, correct any such Nonconforming Marking.

21. INDEMNITY FOR INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY INFRINGEMENT

a. Seller shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Buyer and its customer from all claims, suits, actions, awards, liabilities, damages, penalties, costs and attorneys’ fees related to the actual or alleged infringement of any United States or foreign intellectual property right (including, but not limited to, any right in a patent, copyright, industrial design or semiconductor mask work, or based on misappropriation or wrongful use of information or documents) and arising out of the manufacture, sale or use of Deliverables by Buyer or its customers at any tier, including the end user. Buyer or its customer will duly notify Seller of any such claim, suit or action. Seller will, at its own expense, fully defend such claim, suit or action on behalf of the indemnitees. Buyer’s rights under this Article apply to Elbit Systems of America, LLC (ESA), all its subsidiaries, and all officers, agents and employees of ESA or any ESA subsidiary.

b. In the event an infringement or misappropriation claim as described in this Article, or if Seller reasonably believes that a claim is likely to be made, Seller, at its option and in lieu of indemnification, may (i) modify the applicable Deliverables so that they become non-infringing but still conform fully with all Contract requirements or (ii) obtain for Buyer, at Seller’s sole expense, all rights needed by Buyer to fulfill Buyer’s intended use, including all of Buyer’s contractual obligations.

This Contract operates as an irrevocable assignment from Seller to Buyer of all rights to such inventions or intellectual property including all rights, title and interest throughout the world.

23. THIRD-PARTY SOFTWARE DISCLOSURE.
   a. Third party software means any software used, embedded, delivered with, or otherwise provided with the Deliverables that is licensed, owned, or controlled by a party other than the Seller. Such third party software includes, without limitation, open source, freeware, shareware, commercial, or other proprietary software.
   b. The Seller shall identify in advance any third party software it intends to use, embed, deliver, or otherwise provide to the Buyer in connection with the Seller’s goods and make available to the Seller any license agreements pertaining to such third party software.

24. OPEN SOURCE SOFTWARE RESTRICTIONS AND WARRANTY

      i. requires the distribution or making available of the source code for any software,
      ii. prohibits or limits the Seller or Buyer from charging a fee or receiving consideration in connection with sublicensing, incorporation or distribution of any Deliverable,
      iii. prohibits the use of such software in connection with a defense article or project, iv. grants any right to any person or otherwise allows any such person to decompile, disassemble or otherwise reverse-engineer any software or other intellectual property, or
      v. requires the licensing of any intellectual property for the purpose of making derivative works.
   c. Seller further warrants that no software used, embedded, delivered, or otherwise provided to the Buyer is subject to such licenses, nor constitutes a derivative work of, or is dynamically linked with, or is otherwise designed to interact with any software subject to any of the licenses or restrictions identified in paragraph b of this Article.

25. ASSIGNMENT
Seller shall not assign, transfer, delegate or subcontract any of its rights or obligations under this Contract without the prior written consent of Buyer’s Authorized Representative. Any purported assignment or delegation in violation of this Section shall be null and void. No assignment or delegation shall relieve the Seller of any of its obligations hereunder. Buyer may at any time assign, transfer or subcontract any or all of its rights or obligations under this Contract without Seller's prior written consent.

26. PUBLICITY AND CUSTOMER COMMUNICATION
   a. Without Buyer's Authorized Representative’s prior written approval, Seller shall not, and shall require that its subcontractors at any tier shall not, release any publicity, advertisement, news release or any other statement regarding this Contract or the Deliverables or program to which it pertains. Seller shall be responsible to Buyer for any breach of such obligation by any subcontractor.
   b. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Contract, Buyer shall be responsible for all coordination and communication with Buyer’s customer regarding this Contract or the Deliverables or program to which it pertains. Seller shall have no communications regarding the foregoing with Buyer’s customer without Buyer’s Authorized Representative’s advance written approval and coordination.

27. PROPERTY MANAGEMENT
   a. Buyer’s Property. Seller shall clearly mark, maintain an inventory of, and keep segregated or identifiable all of Buyer's property and all property to which Buyer or the Government acquires an interest by virtue of this Contract. Seller assumes all risk of loss, destruction or damage of such property while in Seller's possession, custody or control, including any transfer to Seller’s subcontractors. Upon request, Seller shall provide Buyer with adequate proof of insurance against such risk of loss. Seller shall not use such property other than in performance of this Contract without Buyer’s Authorized Representative’s prior written consent. Seller shall notify Buyer if Buyer’s property is lost, damaged or destroyed. If directed by Buyer, upon completion, termination or cancellation of this Contract, Seller shall deliver such property, to the extent not incorporated in delivered goods, to Buyer in good condition subject to ordinary wear and tear and normal manufacturing losses.
