

Official Document

Algordanza AG (Inc.), based in Chur, in the canton of Graubünden, Switzerland, requested the signer of this document, Hans-Jürg Tarnutzer, Attorney at Law, based in CH-7002 Chur, Hartbertstrasse 1, accredited notary public of the canton of Graubünden, to accompany and supervise the processing of a deceased person's ashes into a diamond and to record his findings in a document drawn up in accordance with the "Notariatsgesetz" (notary law) of the canton of Graubünden.

The notary public examined and documented each step required in the process between delivery of the deceased person's ashes and examination of the diamond's properties by a certified gemologist.

The notary public confirms that he was able to observe the process described above in its entirety. He did not notice any confusion or manipulation whatsoever and hereby certifies that the diamonds are made with the ashes delivered to Algordanza AG (Inc.) in Chur by a crematorium (known to the notary public) in September 2009.
