2 – Flexible resource creation

Set individual availability for each resource, totally independent of the business opening hours

Availability can be different on each day of the week and resources can operate in a different timezone on every day of the week, if necessary

Exceptions to normal availability can be set in advance

3 – Clever two-way calendar sync

Full integration with all major online calendars, including Google, iCloud, Office 365, and more

3 – Clever two-way calendar sync

External calendar events are transferred into Appointedd and vice versa, allowing you to keep track of personal and professional appointments in one place

Connect each resource to an external calendar

Resources can manage their time through their external calendar without requiring direct access to the Appointedd system

Events in external calendar prevent resource from being double booked
