

Take bookings from any website, effortlessly

About Appointedd

Appointedd provides a market-leading online booking solution with a range of intuitive, functionality-boosting features that can take your advertising possibilities to the next level. Provide real time booking to users without ever leaving your website.

Features to superpower your business

We think running a business on your own should be easier, and with our fantastic time- and energy-saving features, it can be!

Real Time Booking

Make your advertising more effective by letting your users book services directly from the advert on your website: the business will be notified of the booking immediately and see it in their calendar. So easy.

External Calendar Synchronization

Appointedd has a two-way calendar synchronization with major external calendar systems including Google and iCloud, meaning the advertisers you host can see their bookings in their own calendar.

What can Appointedd do for you?

- Improve user experience by offering the chance to book services directly from your website, converting traffic into business.
- Offer benefits such as increased revenue and improved scheduling to the advertisers you host.
- Improve the service you offer with our customizable booking tools that can integrate into your current platform hassle-free.

Flexible Booking Apps

Appointedd allows you to create clean, simple booking apps that can be embedded in a page or insert as a popover button - perfect for adding to an advertisement. There is also the option to whitelabel the apps so there's no brand confusion.

Customizable Interface

Appointedd's booking apps are mobile optimized and can be easily customized to suit the flow the business needs. Plus they can fit to your website branding and everything takes place on the same page, so there's no distracting redirection.

Markus Brinsa
