AUSTIN, Texas, July 17, 2019 – Kasasa@, an award-winning financial technology and marketing provider, announced today that it has been named one of the "2019 Best Places to Work in Austin" by Austin Business Journal for five consecutive years.

Kasasa was named the sixth best place to work in the Large Business category, comprised of businesses with more than 250 employees. Businesses included on the list were ranked by their employees through confidential online surveys, which measured employee attitudes toward a number of factors including communication and resources, individual needs, manager effectiveness, personal engagement, team dynamics and trust in leadership.

In the survey, Kasasa's Austin-based staff of 370 employees detailed the benefits of working for a company that makes a measurable difference in local communities, cares about its employees and encourages a positive work environment. Kasasa believes its employees play an important role in the company's success and recognizes that an empowered, happy workforce can increase productivity and overall performance. Employees receive perks such as open paid time off, team building events, casual dress, annual performance reviews and even onsite yoga.

The company's culture is founded on 'The Patch,' the illustrated manifestation of Kasasa's four key values: Interdependence, Five-Star Leadership, Love and Badassitude. The Patch is at the heart of everything Kasasa does and is the foundation of the company's culture.
