

Electronic Attendance

How SEAtS Electronic Attendance Tracking can help your Financial Aid Office.

Key Benefits

- Significant Reductions in Bad Debts and resulting DoE Reimbursements
- Meet federal regulations for disbursing aid to enrolled students
- Embedded real-time financial aid reports and results for students
- Our workflows and automation will easily guide you through regulations

Why electronic attendance tracking is necessary for financial aid management.

If students never attend class, Federal government demands its money back. Recovering those funds from long departed students is extremely hard. The college then has to pay back that money to the Department of Education.

- SEAtS Electronic Attendance Tracking replaces paper attendance rosters without involving faculty,

- SEAtS delivers real-time attendance records for every student.
- SEAtS can automate the creation of student lists for financial aid disbursement.
- SEAtS open architecture can push this data to your financial systems/ERP.
- SEAtS supports Veteran Affairs to ensure payments for Vets enrolling at your school
- SEAtS supports Achieving the Dream and similar student success initiatives.

“Students who attend class consistently do better, Real-time attendance is the most critical component of any early warning system,” according to Jim Tully, SEAtS VP of Student Success.

About SEAtS Software

SEAtS sets a new benchmark for student success with advanced early warning systems, work flows, dashboards, reports and analytics.
