Threshold 1 Remitter Payments Due

For holidays and bank closures: Allow at least one extra business day for direct deposit. Federal employment and unemployment tax deposits must be made on a business day, Monday to Friday. If a deposit is required on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, you must make your deposit by the close of the following business day.

Remittances/Payments for Threshold 2 Remitters: Are due no later than the 3rd business day after the week in which the payroll was processed. You must also make payments through a financial institution at least one full day before the due date in order to prevent fines.

Unsure of Your Payroll Tax Remittance Schedule? Confirm your schedule with the CRA and Revenu Québec. Your schedule can then be automated as part of your payroll process. Note: Even when you use payroll software, you should monitor your business accounts to ensure that the payments are being processed correctly.
