EMPLOYER ACKNOWLEDGMENT – EMPLOYER WAITING PERIOD

Starting with plan years on or after January 1, 2014, the Affordable Care Act and subsequent federal regulations prohibit group health plans and health insurance issuers from requiring any otherwise eligible plan participants and beneficiaries (employees and dependents) to wait more than ninety days before their health coverage is effective. The regulations define group health plan as the employer or plan administrator. The issuer is defined as the insurance company. Since the requirement applies to both the group health plan and the issuer, each party's obligation is satisfied if the ninety (90) day waiting period is honored. However, if neither party complies, both are subject to penalty.

The Employer Group Policyholder ("Employer") represents that it provides to Aetna, effective date information regarding plan participants and beneficiaries that takes into account the eligibility conditions and waiting period requirements required under federal law, in order for such plan participants and beneficiaries to become eligible for coverage under the Employer's group health insurance coverage with Aetna. In compliance with the waiting period requirements, Aetna shall use the effective date information provided by Employer to enroll such plan participants and beneficiaries in the Employer's group health insurance coverage. In the event this information changes, the Employer shall inform Aetna immediately.
