Information about Individual Health Insurance Plans

Types of individual plans vary but you may need coverage if you are self-employed, you are enrolled in a group plan but it doesn't cover your spouse or children, or even if you're enrolled currently but your benefit needs have changed.

There are many things to know about how to shop for individual health insurance plans. Individual premiums will most likely be higher than that of any small group insurance plan you may have been on in the past.

You will need to understand how individual health insurance options such as Preferred Provider Organizations (PPOs), Health Maintenance Organizations (HMOs), and Health Savings Accounts (HSAs) effect each type of insurance plans. After all that is decided, choose the plan that offers the best fit for your individual health insurance needs.
