Director of Market Intelligence

email: wschervish@labaton.com

As Director of Market Intelligence and a member of Labaton Sucharow's Case Evaluation Team, William H. Schervish works to identify and analyze areas of potential misconduct that may expose the Firm's institutional investor clients to risk or damage. Bill also plays a key role in the Firm's Whistleblower Representation Practice where he evaluates potential cases and assists in the preparation of whistleblower submissions to the Securities and Exchange Commission.

With more than 15 years' experience in accounting and finance, Bill is also an attorney with extensive knowledge of derivative transactions, asset-backed securitizations, and collateralized debt obligations.

Prior to joining the Firm, Bill worked as a banking and finance associate at Mayer Brown LLP, where he drafted and analyzed credit default swaps, indentures, and offering documents. Bill's professional background also includes several positions in finance, specifically in controllership, securities analysis, and commodity trading. He began his career as an audit associate at PricewaterhouseCoopers.

Bill received a B.S., cum laude, in Business Administration from Miami University in 1994, where he was a member of the Business and Accounting Honor Societies. He earned a J.D., cum laude, from Loyola University in 2007.

Bill is a Certified Public Accountant, a CFA® charterholder, and a Certified Fraud Examiner. He is admitted to practice law in New York.
