

Becoming an Engaged Presenter

As a presenter, when you are engaged, you are connected to your thoughts and externally focused on your audience.

How To Engage?

Pause

To breath and gather thoughts

Establish Eye Contact

To connect with individuals, see reactions and respond

Why Engage?

To think on your feet

To take control

To appear thoughtful

To be clear & concise

To reduce nervousness

To improve self-awareness

Improved communication through engagement leads to business efficiency.

For more helpful resources, visit turpincommunication.com/resources/presentation-resources/