Pencak Silat

Pencak Silat is a martial art believed stemming the majority from the Malay Archipelago and Indonesian's heritage. It translated to "fighting by many techniques of self-defense". It has four main components – mental spirit, art and culture, self-defense, and sport.

In the Sport context, Pencak Silat is categorized into two categories; Match (Tanding) & Artistic (Seni).

ABOUT SINGAPORE SILAT FEDERATION

Vision – Pencak Silat, a mainstream and widely participated sport in multi-racial Singapore, and an important contributor of regional and international awards and accolades to Singapore sports.

Mission – To be the beacon for Pencak Silat in Singapore, promoting it as a wholesome sport for ALL and nurturing those with the attributes for “competitive Silat to realize their maximum potential.

Singapore Silat Federation or also known as Persekutuan Silat Singapura (PERSISI) was formed in 1976 and is registered with the Registry of Societies (UEN Number S76SS0039A). PERSISI has been successfully registered and renewed with Institution of a Public Character (IPC000526) yearly, and received its Charity status under the Charities Act since April 2011. Singapore Silat Federation is also certified with ISO 9001:2015.

Singapore Silat Federation is the main governing body for the sport covering large scopes, such as; the management of Silat activities, coaching, talent-scouting, coordinating competitions worldwide, technical officiating (Referee/Jury, and Secretariat services), cultural promotion of the art to educational institutions, corporations, and communities.

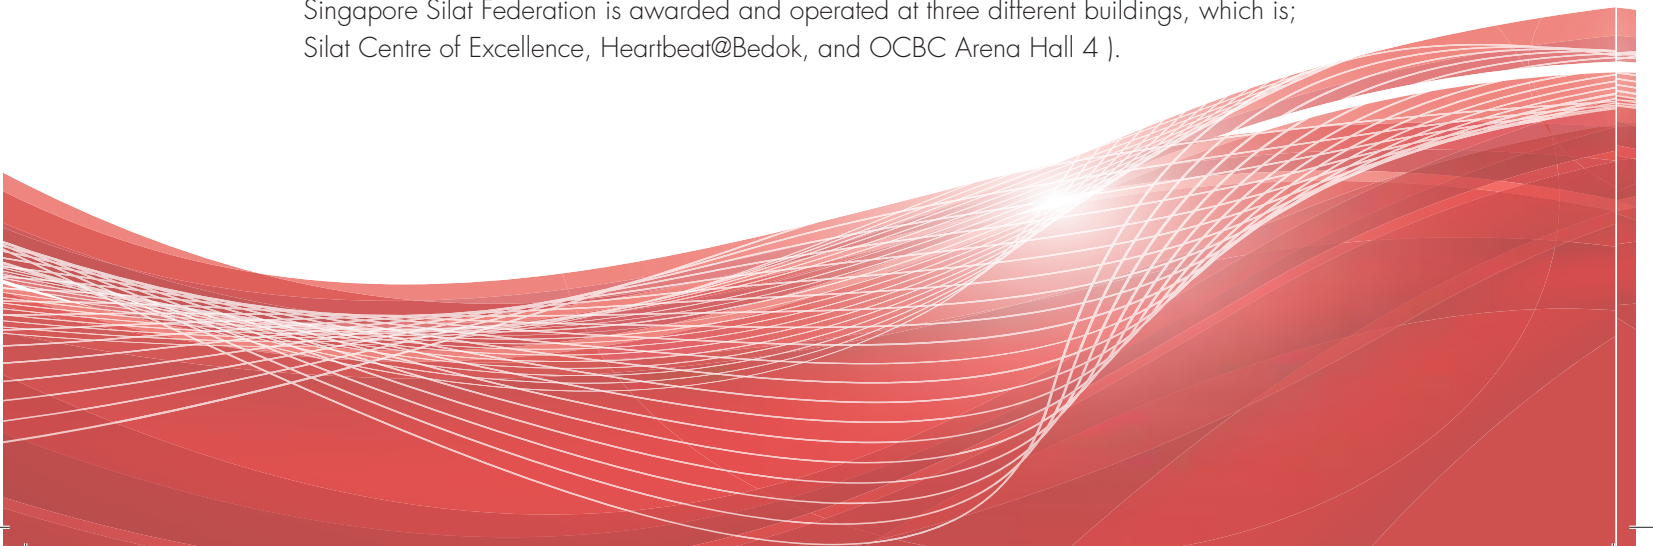

Singapore Silat Federation is working hand-in-hand with Singapore Sports Council (SSC), Singapore National Olympic Council (SNOC), People’s Association (PA), International Pencak Silat Federation (PERSILAT), and many more in order to sustain the awareness of the sport locally and internationally.

Singapore Silat Federation is one of the founding members for PERSILAT, and one of the countries who are involved directly and actively to ensure the sport is successfully well-organized worldwide.

To guarantee the purity of our national athletes and the sport itself, Singapore Silat Federation adopts Anti-Doping Singapore (ADS) Anti-Doping Rules and informs our members on any updates from ADS and World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA).

Silat was first included in Singapore Sports School (SSP) back in 2006, and since its first inclusion - 16 (and counting) of our national athletes has graduated from SSP. And every year Silat is given spots by SSP for our national athletes to board and study there!

Singapore Silat Federation is awarded and operated at three different buildings, which is; Silat Centre of Excellence, Heartbeat@Bedok, and OCBC Arena Hall 4 ).

ABOUT ALADDIN STREET SINGAPORE

ABOUT WORLD PENCAK SILAT CHAMPIONSHIP

In recent years, Pencak Silat has transcended into many countries outside South East Asia including Holland, Germany, Italy, South Africa, France, Japan, and more. The sport has since become a part of many people's lives and a vehicle to bring people closer.

Objective of organizing the championship is mainly to gather all the Silat participants from all around the globe and compete competitively representing their own country.

First World (International) Pencak Silat Championship was held in Jakarta, Indonesia in 1982.

Subsequently the championship was hosted by countries, such as; Holland, Indonesia, Austria, Thailand, Malaysia, and Singapore.

In 2012, Thailand hosted 15th World Championship which was held in Chiang Rai, and for the 16th World Championship once again PSAT is taking up and hosting it in Phuket, Thailand.

And in the 17th World Pencak Silat Championship, it went back to Indonesia being the host country.

With the success organizing of Pencak Silat event at the 28th SEA Games 2015 in Singapore, under the leadership of Mr. Sheik Alau'ddin Yacoob Marican, PBM, Singapore tries its luck to bid for the 18th World Pencak Silat Championship to be the host country.

And, Singapore is endorsed by the International Pencak Silat Federation on 7th September 2018 to run the championship and becoming the host country.
