

EPA Class 1 Ozone Depleting Substance Certification

Dear Customer: The United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) requires the following certification when you purchase Class 1 Ozone Depleting Substances under the global laboratory essential-use exemption, per 21 CFR 82.13 (y). This certification remains valid for one year.

TABLE 1: ESSENTIAL LABORATORY AND / OR ANALYTICAL USES ELIGIBLE FOR THE EXEMPTION

CODE	USE	CODE	USE
1	Biochemical Research	5	Extraction Solvent
2	Carrier	6	Inert Solvent for Chemical Reactions
3	Diluent or Carrier for Chemical Analysis	7	Laboratory Chemical
4	Equipment Calibration	8	Other Critical Analytical / Laboratory Purpose

CERTIFICATION: The Class 1 Ozone Depleting Substances (ODS's) indicated below are being purchased under the global laboratory essential-use exemption for the uses indicated below. These Class 1 ODS's will not be resold nor used in manufacturing, testing of oil and grease or total petroleum hydrocarbons in water, testing of tar in road-paving materials nor in forensic finger printing, which are ineligible uses under the global laboratory essential-use exemption -- 40 CFR Part 82, (A), Appendix G.

OZONE DEPLETING SUBSTANCE	CAS #	CODE(S) FROM TABLE 1	% USED FOR EACH CODE
Bromochloromethane	74-97-5
Carbon Tetrachloride	56-23-5
1,1,1-Trichloroethane	71-55-6
1,1,2-Trichloro-1,2,2-Trifluoroethane	76-13-1
