

FUN FACTS ABOUT COLUMBUS, OHIO

The city was founded in 1812 and became the capital in 1816. It is named after explorer Christopher Columbus

The average daily commute in Columbus is 21 minutes

50% of the U.S. population (159 million) lives within a 500 mile radius of Columbus, Ohio.

Indianola Junior High, the first middle school in the nation, opened in Columbus in 1909, and still operates today.

There are 172,000 seats in college and professional sports venues in Columbus.

Join us for Leaders@All Levels Sept. 8-10, 2017.

Turbocharge your leadership skills and discover Columbus!

<http://connect.legalshield.com/leaders2017>