MARKETING AUTOMATION SOFTWARE FOR HIGHER ED

In the world of international student recruitment, building awareness and visibility online has been integral to the successful promotion of the partner schools and universities we work with. Today, the market for higher education has evolved to become much more competitive and globalised, creating the need for more advanced and tailored marketing strategies.

The emergence of Generation Z ("Gen Z") as a key recruitment demographic has also created new challenges. Born into a digital world, Gen Z are advanced users of technology, simultaneously communicating across multiple platforms with ease every day. Expecting no less from their marketing interactions, their expectations are more discerning than ever before.

To differentiate themselves against the competition, universities must not only capture the of interest students but keep them engaged. Methods to encourage engagement such as personalization and tailored communications often can be costly and time-consuming, creating new challenges for budget-conscious educators. This is especially so when large volumes of students are involved.

In anticipation of evolving market needs, Keystone has developed marketing automation software specifically for the higher education industry. Combining a simple, user-friendly interface with intelligent automation and communication tools, our software will make your everyday marketing headaches a thing of the past.

About Keystone

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to empower higher education professionals around the world with the latest marketing tools and automation technologies that will enhance implementation of their student recruitment strategies.

We help students across the world find the right program and study destination to pursue their dreams. Offering a range of free services for your prospective students, we help them make an informed decision on their path to a bright future.

For our customers, we aim to develop long-term partnerships based on trust and a common goal of recruitment success. We aim to anticipate your needs by providing innovative solutions and personalized ongoing support. Our Customer Success team of international experts work together with our customers to help them succeed in reaching their goals. Their passion and commitment to our customers is at the core of our company.

WHAT WE DO BEST

Keystone Academic Solutions is a leader in marketing automation software for higher education, working with 4,200 institutions in over 90 countries.

We help you increase your brand awareness in your target markets and make sure that prospective students can find your school and program offerings. Keystone provides you with Marketing Automation Software designed specifically for higher education providers, helping your team engage with all your prospective students while ensuring easy and effective communication.

By working with Keystone, all your marketing efforts are unified and student engagement is optimized in order to achieve the best results.

"After working with Keystone for several years I consider it to be one of the best investments we've ever engaged with at EADA Business School. Their conversion rate from qualified student to enrollment has been satisfactory as well as the ROI. I would also like to mention their high level of customer care and their constant availability when offering customized solutions".

Bibiana Camba, Admissions Director
EADA Business School Barcelona, Spain

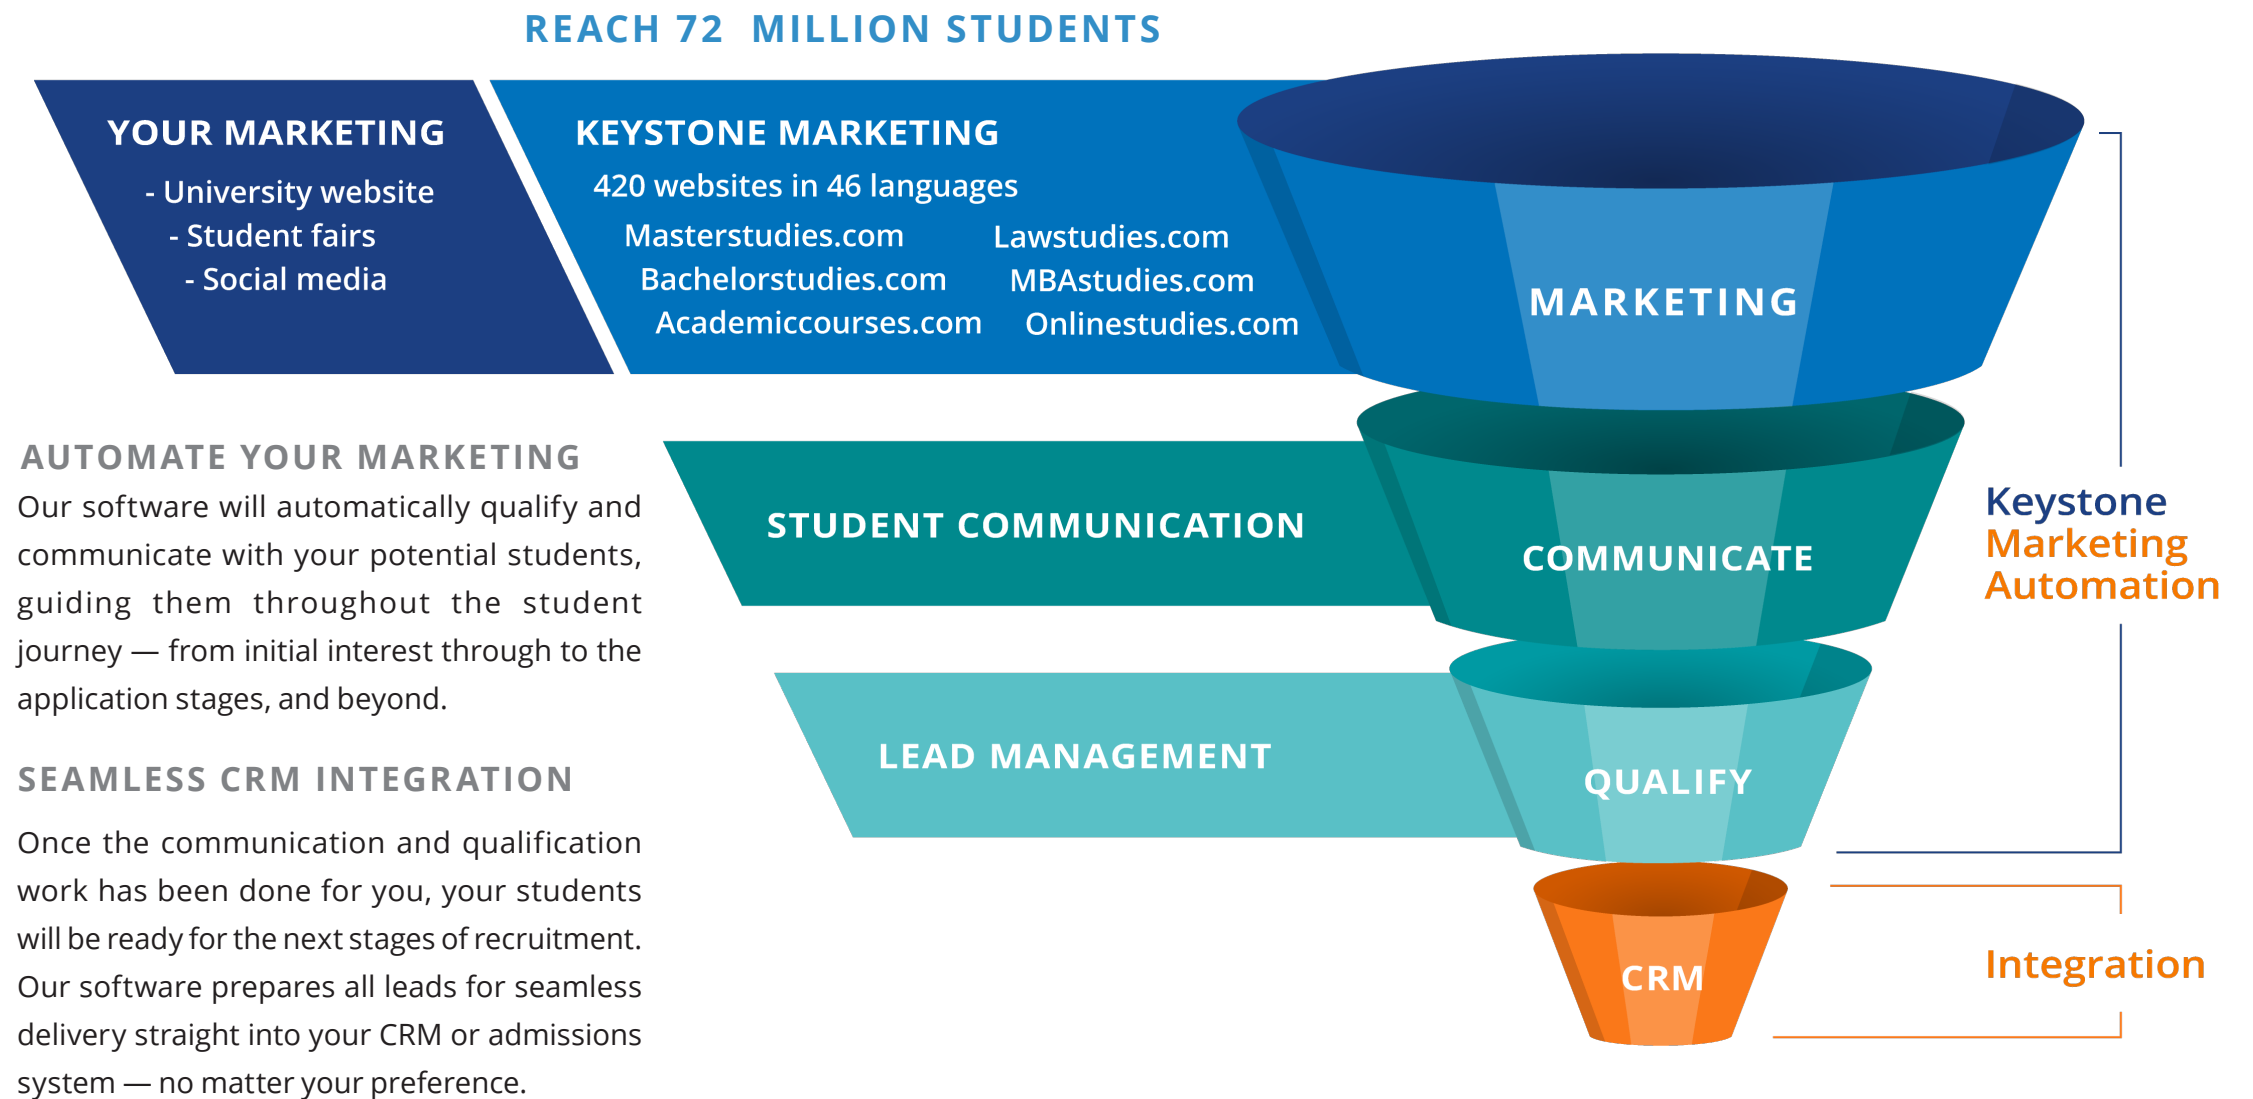

Marketing Automation Software

Our marketing automation software is strategically designed to capture your student leads, nurturing them down the funnel and effectively managing them within a single, unified system.

PROMOTE YOUR PROGRAMS

Enhance your visibility or build brand awareness by promoting your programs across our 420 global websites, reaching over 72 million students every year. Connect your own marketing channels such as your website or social media, consolidating your marketing channels into one place using our software.

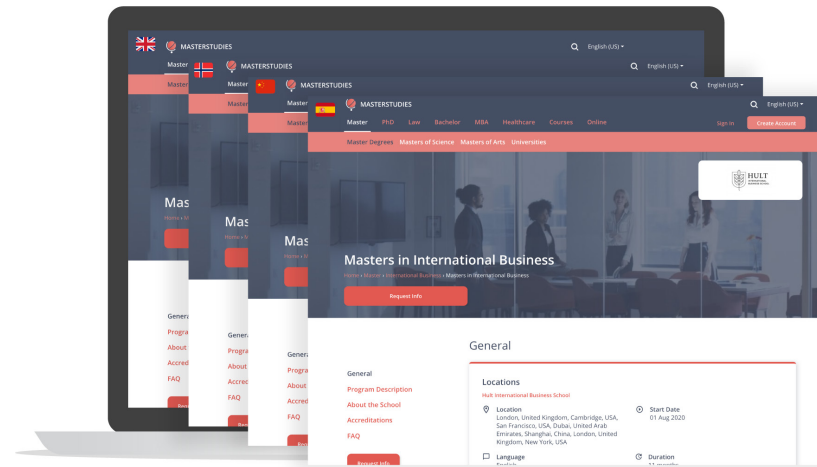

AUTOMATE YOUR MARKETING

Our software will automatically qualify and communicate with your potential students, guiding them throughout the student journey — from initial interest through to the application stages, and beyond.

SEAMLESS CRM INTEGRATION

Once the communication and qualification work has been done for you, your students will be ready for the next stages of recruitment. Our software prepares all leads for seamless delivery straight into your CRM or admissions system — no matter your preference.

72 Million Students Every Year

Keystone's multilingual websites are available in 40+ languages, helping you promote your programs in all major markets. With organic search engine optimization, we ensure that you won't miss out on visibility for the most relevant searches done in local languages.

Our websites are designed and optimized to provide you with a direct connection to students as they seek a study program. Incorporating a lean and user-friendly design, it has never been easier for students to find your school and get in touch.

"Working with Keystone is a pleasure. They provide us with a superb international exposure for our programs in our campuses in Brazil, Italy and Spain. They help us reach our enrollment goals in the post-graduate international market. In addition, the customer service and support is outstanding. I would highly recommend Keystone Academic Solutions."

Be visible in 40+ languages

WE DELIVER TOP RESULTS ON ALL THE MAJOR SEARCH ENGINES

Keystone optimizes your programs in over 46 languages to ensure they are visible to the millions of daily searches being performed by students who are not searching in English.

Even if your students wish to study in English, and are fully proficient in the language, research shows they are still more likely to search in their native language first. We make you visible to those students, no matter which language or search engine they choose to use.

Our promotions focus on attracting students through organic search results with an emphasis on unbranded searches. This enhances your visibility where it matters most; where students will search for their next degree. All at minimal cost to your school or university!

CHAT DIRECTLY WITH POTENTIAL STUDENTS

The screenshot displays the Keystone chat interface. At the top, a profile card for Jane Andersson is shown, including her name, age (28), gender (Female), location (Oulu, Finland), and contact information (+358 500 865 926). Below this, the chat history is visible, showing three messages from Jane and three automated responses from the system. The messages are as follows:

- Message 1: Jane asks, "What is the start date for this program?".
Response 1: "The start date for the Master in Nanotechnology is September 1."
- Message 2: Jane asks, "How much does this program cost?".
Response 2: "The cost for the Master in Nanotechnology is 10 000 EUR per year."
- Message 3: Jane asks, "What documents are required to apply to this program?".
Response 3: "The following documents are required to apply to the Master in Nanotechnology: - Application form, - Passport Copy, - IELTS Certificate, - Bachelor Transcripts, - Letter of Recommendation. Please be sure to apply by September 1."

On the right side of the interface, there is a sidebar with various details and actions. The "Actions" section includes checkboxes for "Has a Bachelor Degree", "Wants to start in 6-12 months", and "Relevant background", all of which are checked. Below this, a section titled "Verified social media accounts" lists Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram. At the bottom, a "Comments" section contains a comment: "Call Jane next week to help her with submitting her application." with a "Save comment" button.

Your Student Leads Answered Automatically

The way we communicate today has evolved significantly as a result of rapid technological change. In student recruitment, when a few days without a response would be considered normal only a few years ago, today's students value real-time communication and rapid responsiveness when communicating with prospective schools.

Highly efficient

The Student Journey with Keystone

"I have been very satisfied with the results provided by Keystone. Their portal is easy to use and ensures that we are able to respond quickly to potential applicants. Most importantly, we have received leads that have converted to students in our classroom. They have always been able to provide a lot of support from everything to integration with our CRM, improving the content of our standard replies and program profiles as well as making sure we got the most out of their powerful tools on the back-end side of their system. I would recommend listing programs [with Keystone] to any institution that wants to get measurable results and interaction with potential applicants."

Michael Oppenheimer, Director of International Student Recruitment

Our Customers Say...

"Keystone has provided USF tremendous outreach to international markets that have been previously difficult to reach. In our first year campaign with Keystone, we were excited to receive a significant number of applications from Keystone. The internal interface and traffic reports for university administrators stands well above other lead generation providers."

Mark Landerghini, Director of Graduate Admission Arts and Sciences, University of San Francisco

"We strive to work within our budget, and having Keystone allows us to target populations that we can't reach in person. Many of our international prospects come via Keystone, and have resulted in applications to our graduate programs. It's very easy to use the dashboard to analyze data, and to import prospects into our CRM. We are then able to target specific communications based on the prospect information."

Lisa Curry, Assistant Director of Graduate Admissions
Elliott School of International Affairs- GWU USA

"We have been using Keystone for the past 2 years and have been very pleased with the results. Every month it generates key leads for us, each lead providing a level of detail that lets us be strategic in our follow-up activity. We have come to rely on Keystone as our largest and most effective lead generator outside the United States."

David Singer, Director of Communications & Marketing
Albany Law School

"Keystone has enabled us to cost-effectively reach our target markets with subject-specific content. Our account manager has been consistently helpful and supportive and has always been able to quickly answer any questions or resolve any problems we've had regarding the University's profiles on Keystone."

Nathan Crouch, International Marketing Officer
University of Kent, UK

"For Bath Spa University, no marketing campaign will be entered without a proved return on investment and Keystone has delivered it. Having worked with a number of other lead generation products I have found Keystone to be the most superior product on the market. The portal gives you more than information, it gives you intelligence and the leads generated have proved to be relevant, up-to-date and well qualified."

Nancy Donna Cooke, Director of International Recruitment
Bath Spa University, UK

"We are very happy with Keystone Academic and we have received a lot of exposure in our key markets including the US and Europe. Thanks to Keystone we were able to enroll 6 students for our 2016 summer photography courses."

Lucija Hvrat, Course Coordinator
Istituto Italiano di Fotografia, Italy
