Ramadhan Gifts 2020

Don't let social distancing stops you from sending Ramadhan Gifts to your clients/employees.

This Ramadhan is one that we will never forget. Most likely there will be no festivities on the street, no busy “buka bersama” schedule, and limited visitation to families’ open houses.

But we should never stop sending appreciation to our treasured clients, nor sending happiness to our colleagues, nor sending love to our families, friends, and many others that matter to us.

Ramadhan Gifts to Suit Your Every Need

We provide digital gifts that are easy to be redeemed during this time!

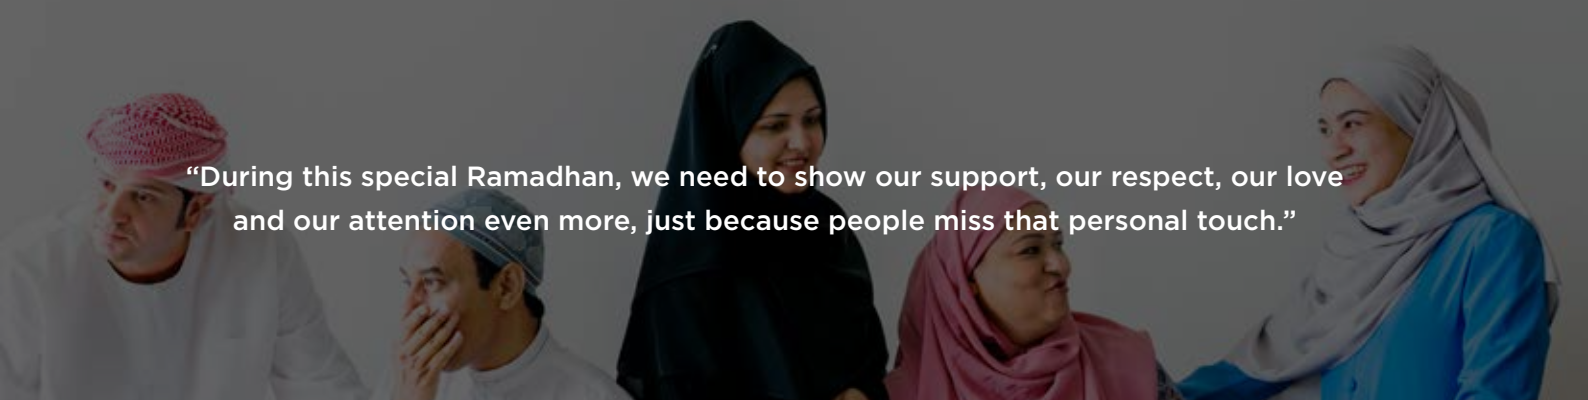

This catalog presents hampers solution that can be redeemed online or offline, that is fully customized to your need.

e-Vouchers

Digital Gift Card

“During this special Ramadhan, we need to show our support, our respect, our love and our attention even more, just because people miss that personal touch.”

Ramadhan Gifts: e-Vouchers

TADA, in collaboration with various brands, offers e-vouchers that you can give as a Ramadhan Gifts. These e-vouchers variants includes.

FMCG (Sembako) e-Vouchers to be redeemed at Alfamart

This kind of e-voucher is encoded so that it can only be redeemed towards daily necessities, and prevents it being redeemed into non-essential items. (For example: cigarettes)

Various online courses

Stay at home can be a productive time to learn something new, improve and update our skills, or deepen our knowledge. We also provide e-vouchers that can be redeemed into various self-improvement classes.

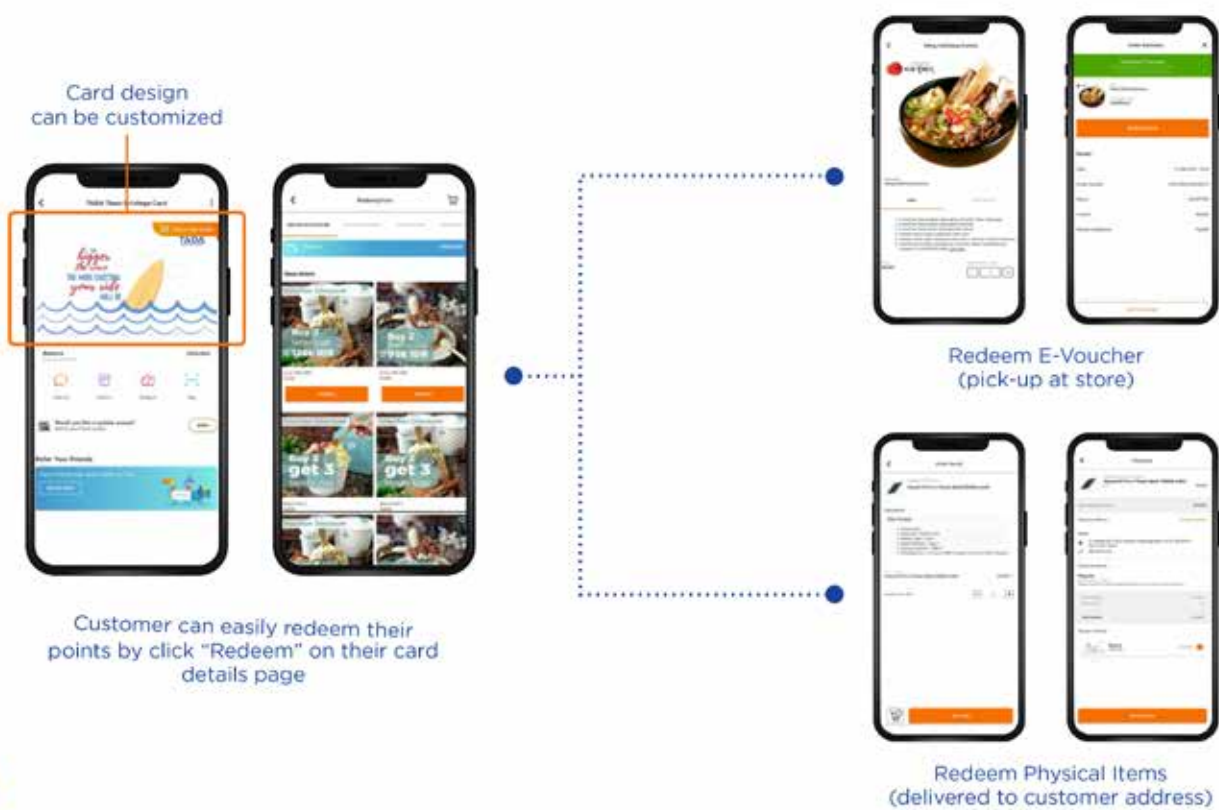

Vouchers to Save Our Local Brands

During this pandemic, a lot of businesses and their employees suffer. We have created a social initiative to allow these businesses to sell pre-buy offerings to help with their cashflow and to help ensure that their employees can still work and earn their livings. You can help by buying these pre-buy vouchers as Ramadhan Gifts! Many of these pre-buy offerings can also be delivered to the Recipient's address. Lend a hand, save our local businesses.

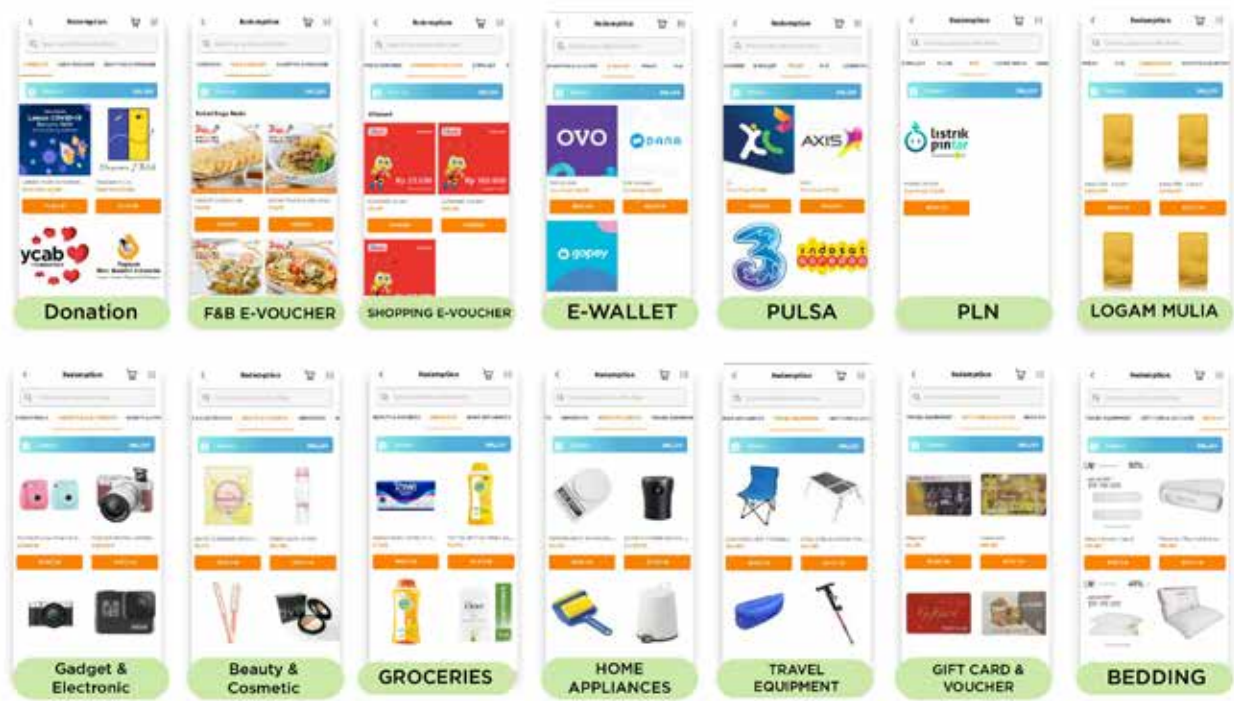

Ramadhan Gifts: Digital Card

Most people are familiar with the concept of a gift card. This is a form of digital gift card that can be redeemed into anything the recipients' desire in the digital catalog.

TADA

This digital card is highly customizable. You can customize the design and what to be put in the redemption catalog.

The items contained in this digital catalog can also be delivered straight into the recipients' home. Including various food and beverages, and groceries items. The recipients can choose for themselves which item to be delivered.
