

Complaints Policy

UNI-POLS-26 | Revision 1 | 1 October 2015

Unigloves views complaints as an opportunity to learn and improve for the future, as well as a chance to put things right for the person or organisation that has made the complaint.

Our Policy. Our policy is:

- To provide a fair complaints procedure which is clear and easy to use for anyone wishing to make a complaint;
- To publicise the existence of our complaints procedure so that people know how to contact us to make a complaint;
- To make sure everyone at Unigloves knows what to do if a complaint is received;
- To make sure all complaints are investigated fairly and in a timely way;
- To make sure that complaints are, wherever possible, resolved and that relationships are repaired; and
- To gather information which helps us to improve what we do.

Definition of a Complaint. A complaint is any expression of dissatisfaction, whether justified or not, about any aspect of Unigloves' business.

Where Complaints Come From. Complaints may come from distributors, buying groups, end-users or other members of the wider community. A complaint can be received verbally, by phone, by email or in writing. This policy does not cover complaints from staff, who should refer to Unigloves' discipline and grievance policies.

Confidentiality. All complaint information will be handled sensitively, telling only those who need to know and following any relevant data protection requirements.

Responsibility. Overall responsibility for this policy and its implementation lies with the directors.

Review. This policy is reviewed regularly and updated as required.
