

Gratitude for the Second Half of Life

A retreat for those aged 55+ with Dede Armstrong and Friends

“It’s been ten years since I retired, seven years since I joined A.A. Now I can truly say that I am a grateful alcoholic.” -Alcoholics Anonymous, p. 543

As we journey through our lives, it can be easy to be swayed by those things that don’t go well. As our bodies and minds continue to change, we can often be justified in our resentments. In fact, sometimes this is where we find our connection with each other. What if we looked at our stories with a different perspective? What would our lives look like if they were viewed through the eyes of gratitude?

Come away for a weekend to join others in recovery as we get in touch with our wellspring of gratitude. We’ll tell stories, reflect, journal, and—most importantly—connect in fellowship.
