Weekend Retreat with Sherry Gaugler-Stewart and Ken Stewart

Many of us have found that implementing the principles found in the 12 Steps has helped us with our lives, but not necessarily our relationships. How to live successfully with others can be found within our Traditions. The Traditions are based in unity, which is a cherished quality in the fellowships of AA and Al-Anon. Although originally created to help promote growth and harmony in the group setting, they have been found to be guidelines for our behavior. This retreat will focus on the use and application of the 12 Traditions to heal and enrich all relationships. This is not limited to couples. The ideas and principles used have been found to work for all.

Retreat Leaders:

Ken and Sherry are husband and wife, co-workers and friends – plenty of relationships just between the two of them! Both have studied the Traditions with sponsors and sponsees and in a couple’s group they attend monthly. They strive to keep God in the center of their relationship, and are constantly learning and growing in this practice. They previously hosted a monthly meeting at The Retreat with the same topic name.

Attendees will experience:

- An opportunity to retreat from the daily distractions in our lives
- Connection with others on this spiritual path, including group discussion
- Exploration of spiritual practices to use individually and in connection with others
- Nourishment, with meals prepared by our award-winning chef
