*“If the path before you is clear, you’re probably on someone else’s.”
-Joseph Campbell*

Forgiveness is important to recovery, and this process starts when we realize that we have a forgiving God in our lives. Sometimes this isn’t easy for us to discover. We are challenged when we are unable to allow ourselves to be open to this possibility. We get robbed of freedom and joy when we allow ourselves to stay attached to a concept of God that doesn’t work for us.

This retreat will be an opportunity to move beyond any obstacles and unwillingness to find the path to sustain us along our journey.

Attendees will experience:

- An opportunity to retreat from the daily distractions in our lives
- Connection with others on this spiritual path
- Exploration of spiritual practices
- Time for reflection and contemplation
- Nourishment, with meals prepared by our award-winning chef

Jack Odom, 3rd Step Coordinator at The Retreat

Jack has worked at The Retreat for over a decade, previously as the Men’s Program Coordinator, and is a trained Spiritual Director. He has been involved in his own personal recovery journey for over 15 years. Jack is passionate about helping people move from magic to mystery on their spiritual journeys.
