PRE-CRUISE VACATION STRETCHER

Feel the heat of the sun as you walk onto your private balcony and let your gaze sweep over a sparkling blue lagoon. Every day cares are an ocean away as you allow yourself to fully let go. There's nowhere you have to be, and nothing you have to do except relax.

Tahiti is the largest island in French Polynesia and is divided into two parts: the bigger, northwestern part Tahiti Nui and the smaller, southeastern part Tahiti Iiti. The mountainous island was formed from volcanic activity, and is surrounded by coral reefs, white and black sand beaches, lagoons, and waterfalls.

Papeete, the capital and commercial hub of French Polynesia, is host to boutiques, black pearl shops and the must-see Marche Central, where you'll find traditional Tahitian crafts, flowers, and fruits. One block away is Papeete's waterfront, home to an international yachting community, luxury liners, and sailing yachts.

Just 30 minutes by high-speed catamaran from the island of Tahiti, Moorea is a vision of lush, green vegetation and everything you would envision a South Pacific island to be. Inspiring the mythical Bali Hai out of James Michener's Tales of the Pacific, Moorea's unforgettable beauty lies in the mountains that jut out of its wide, shallow lagoon, numerous waterfalls, and stunning beaches. A few days in Moorea is a perfect way to start your vacation out right!

Marae (Ancient Sacred Site)

Cook and Opunohu Bays

Aito Off-Road Safari Tour – (Three-Night Package Only)

Board a 4 wheel-drive vehicle for a ride through Moorea's deep valleys and mountains. Start your adventure with a drive through Paopao Valley passing some pineapple plantations and then crossing the Paopao Opunohu trail to the territorial property of Opunohu.

A stop at one of the numerous marae (an ancient sacred site) will allow you to learn more about Polynesian culture.

You will then continue to the Belvédère lookout point for an incredible panoramic view of Cook and Opunohu Bays. Return to the interior trails of the Agricultural School or Moorea Tropical Garden and get acquainted with the local flora. Moorea, the 'green garden' of Polynesia, is well known for its schools, receiving children from all of the outer islands to learn. Here you will sample homemade jam and have the opportunity to purchase local ice cream or fruit juice.

You will then drive a steep ascent to Magic Mountain, where a little path surrounded by grapefruit, lemon, and orange trees opens up to a panoramic view stretching across Opunohu Bay, the lagoon, and the sea.
