UNESCO World Heritage Site of Humayun's Tomb

Welcome to Delhi!

The capital of India, Delhi has been continuously inhabited since the 6th century BCE and has served as a capital of various kingdoms and empires throughout its history. In the 1920s the city was completely redesigned by Sir Edwin Lutyens and Sir Herbert Baker. Nowadays, Delhi is a bustling metropolis, a vibrant center of international arts and culture, and a thriving commercial hub.

Our hotel, the Oberoi, New Delhi, enjoys views of the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Humayun's Tomb on one side and a calming view of the forested golf course on the other. The New Delhi hotel upholds the reputation of the Oberoi luxury hotel group—founded in 1936—for taking excellent care of its guests.
