Welcome to Santiago, Chile!

Santiago is the capital and largest city in Chile and sits in a valley on the canalized Mapocho River, surrounded by the snow-capped Andes and the Chilean Coast Range. The city was founded as Santiago del Nuevo Extremo, Santiago of the New Frontier, in 1541 by the Spanish conquistador Pedro de Valdivia. Prior to the Spanish settlers taking over and ruling the area, the original inhabitants were the Picunche Indians.

Santiago is a dynamic, sophisticated, energetic, and cosmopolitan city. It has strong European and North American influences in its architecture and culture, but recently, there has been a resurgence of mestizo artisanship, especially in music, theater, painting and literature. It is home to many events showcasing the best of Chilean culture and hosts international festivals filled with music, flavor, and color. It is a city that is filled with beauty, world-class museums, art galleries, handicraft markets, sidewalk eateries, restaurants, bars, cafés, and Latino nightlife in their many barrios!

Don't miss this opportunity to truly understand, see, and experience this diverse and sophisticated city filled with the best of Chilean culture!

ABOUT YOUR TOURS

SANTIAGO CITY HIGHLIGHTS & SKY COSTANERA TOUR (with three- and two-night packages)

Today after you've had a chance to settle into your room, you will go on a city highlights tour to become acquainted with one of the most developed cities in South America. Santiago combines the urban and the classic, in both its architecture and atmosphere. This heritage will come to life through seeing many iconic city sights, such as the Moneda Presidential Palace.

Designed by the Italian designer Joaquin Toesca, La Moneda was originally the colony's mint house, producing coins in Chile from 1814 to 1929, as well as the presidential residence from 1845 to 1930. What were once grand living quarters are now the offices of three cabinet ministers: Interior, General Secretariat of the Presidency, and General Secretariat of the Government.

You will also see The Plaza de Armas, the city's most famous square, surrounded by important and beautiful buildings such as the cathedral and central post office. One of the most important parts of the city is San Cristobal Hill. The hill is one of the Santiago's largest urban parks, topped by a stunning 22-meter (72-foot) tall statue of the Virgin Mary.

Before your tour comes to an end, you'll visit the Sky Costanera observation deck, which offers 360° views of Santiago from atop the 984-foot tall Gran Torre Santiago skyscraper—currently the tallest building in Latin America. Here, you will have time to enjoy the best view of beautiful Santiago.

Tonight will be free for you to explore and dine on your own!

Viña del Mar Flower Clock

Valparaíso

The Turri Clock in Valparaíso Bay

VIÑA DEL MAR & VALPARAÍSO WITH LA SEBASTIANA TOUR AND LUNCH (three-night package only)

After your breakfast, you'll board your coach for an unforgettable full-day tour to see Valparaíso and Viña del Mar. The 1-½ hour drive will take you through Casablanca, known for its fine vineyards, before you arrive on the coast and Viña del Mar, also known as the Garden City because of its beautiful beaches, lovely parks, and flower garden landscapes—including a famous flower clock! It has become one of the central region's most important tourism attractions.

Next stop is the picturesque city port of Valparaíso, founded in the 16th century. The port was declared by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site in 2003 and offers a unique and fascinating architectural architecture. Built on several steep hills above the port, the hillside houses and buildings can be reached by walking along its streets, climbing the long stairs, or taking the cable cars built in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Colorful houses dot the hills, forming an irresistible landscape for photo enthusiasts and lovers of traditional sites.

On your way from Valparaíso to La Sebastiana, you will see the Monumento al Cable de Cobre, a monument made of iron and wood and sheathed in copper, the ore that enriched the Chilean economy. You'll also learn about the National Congress—why it is located in Valparaíso as opposed to Santiago—and about the earthquake that hit Valparaíso in 1906, destroying 70% of Valparaíso, and how they rebuilt.

You'll pass Victoria Square, a lively square that has been a focal point of Valparaíso for almost two centuries and is home to impressive bronze statues and an ornamental fountain set around pristine tree-lined lawns. We'll pause to admire the city's colonial landmarks that frame the square and serve as a reminder of the first Europeans who settled in the city.

Once in La Sebastiana, we'll visit the hilltop house of Pablo Neruda, the famous Chilean poet and writer, which has been turned into a museum, featuring many of his personal effects and offering amazing views. After visiting the house of Pablo Neruda you'll be off on your walking tour, descending through the Plaza San Luis, where the church of the same name is located.

Keep your cameras ready as you walk down through the streets because this is where the city's color begins, and you can take the opportunity to stop at a viewpoint with one of the most striking views of the city. You will go down emblematic stairs of Valparaíso on your way to Bahía Utópica, an art gallery featuring the works of Chilean and other South American artists.

After leaving the gallery, you'll pass the Lutheran church, where you will learn about the history of this church and its cemetery, the final resting place of 58 U.S. sailors who crossed Cape Horn during the United States and England War.

Next, you'll descend the famous piano staircase, and have another opportunity to take amazing photos, before arriving at the Gervasoni and Galves promenades, with the famous Turri clock and vibrant graffiti art.

After walking through the colorful and historical streets of Valparaíso, you'll meet your coach, which will take you to Viña del Mar, where you will enjoy lunch at a coastal restaurant and have a chance to absorb the beauty of this quaint town.

Tonight, you will have free time to explore and have dinner on your own.
