Welcome to Tahiti!

Feel the caress of the sun as you walk onto your private balcony and let your gaze sweep over a sparkling blue lagoon. Everyday cares are an ocean away as you allow yourself to fully let go. There's nowhere you have to be, and nothing you have to do except relax.

Tahiti is the largest island in French Polynesia and is divided into two parts: the bigger, northwestern part, Tahiti Nui, and the smaller, southeastern part, Tahiti Iti. The mountainous island was formed by volcanic activity and is surrounded by coral reefs, white- and black-sand beaches, lagoons, and waterfalls.

Pape'ete, the capital and commercial hub of French Polynesia, is host to boutiques, black pearl shops, and the must-see Marché Central, where you'll find traditional Tahitian crafts, flowers, and fruits. One block from our hotel is Pape'ete's waterfront, home to an international yachting community with luxury liners and sailing yachts.

THE INTERCONTINENTAL TAHITI RESORT & SPA

Just 10 minutes from the airport, the InterContinental Tahiti Resort & Spa has long been the island's top resort and the perfect place to begin a visit to French Polynesia. On the grounds are the Bathys Diving Center, Lagoonarium, snorkeling gear rentals, a private beach, spa, two infinity pools, tennis courts, and 30 acres of gardens. Pape'ete's museums, shops, galleries, and markets are a short drive away. In addition, there are two restaurants on the property: Le Lotus Restaurant, serving French cuisine at lunch and dinner, and Te Tiare Restaurant, an authentic Tahitian-style restaurant open for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. There are also three bars: the Lobby Bar Terrace, the Tiki bar, and the Lotus Swim-Up Bar.

In-room amenities for all room categories include private balconies to relax and enjoy the view, coffee and tea maker, TV, hair dryer, soap and shampoo, bathtub/shower, room service, internet access, and in-room safe.
