idX Year in Review: A look back at 2017's continued retail innovation and evolution

ST. LOUIS, MO (March 8, 2018)--idX Corporation's just-published 2017 Year in Review takes a look back at another year of great evolutionary change for idX and the markets it serves.

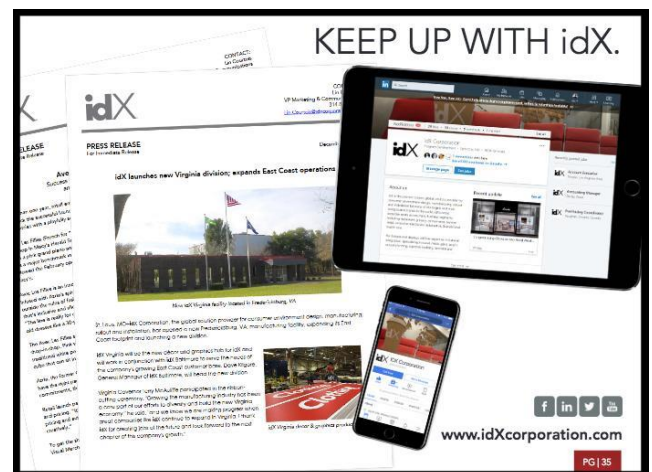

As the rate of innovation increased rapidly in 2017, idX--the global solution provider for consumer environment design, manufacturing, rollout and installation--led the way in helping its clients adapt to the new challenges.

Last year, idX continued its worldwide expansion, at the same time living true to its mission of offering the economic and operational benefits of an international company while servicing the customer like an entrepreneur.

In 2017, brands increasingly turned to idX for its global capability to deliver every component in their stores in one cost-effective and efficient package. As a result, idX continued to increase the role it plays in complex rollouts--developing, designing, procuring, manufacturing, delivering, and installing everything within the four walls.

The new idX Year in Review features exciting 2017 projects idX executed for some of its clients, including: Atlanta Braves-Suntrust Park, Avec les Filles, Blackhawk Network, Clarks, Costco, Dell, Ford, Hibbett Sports, Hudson Bay, Jack Wolfskin, Jos. A. Bank, Koskii, Kroger, LAX, Lord & Taylor, Pandora, Reebok, Sephora, Taco Bell, and Urban Ladder.
