

Nick Gaudion

Director, Forensic Accounting Division

Qualifications

Bachelor of Business
Chartered Accountant

Background

Nick leads our team of forensic accountants and is committed to helping the legal profession make sense of the dollars in dispute resolution.

Nick began his career in 1991 with Deloitte Melbourne. There he learned the fundamentals of auditing small to medium private and public companies.

He transferred to Parramatta in 1996 where he developed a keen interest in forensic accounting and made the decision to specialise in this area. He further broadened his experience during an eighteen month secondment to Deloitte Calgary, Canada, where he assisted in damage quantification claims in the manufacturing sector.

Since returning to Australia in 2000, Nick has developed a reputation for delivering independent opinions to complex issues in an easy to understand manner, whether that be in a written report or in the witness box.

In April 2013 Nick was appointed to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal as a part-time member with accounting experience.

Expertise

Nick specialises in damage quantification and valuations for litigation and other dispute resolution forums. He has assisted in many areas of law including Breach of Contract/Warranty, Shareholder disputes, Personal Injury and Family Law matters.

His experience covers all stages of dispute resolution from preparation of preliminary estimates for the purpose of negotiations and case strategy through to providing concluded opinions and giving evidence in court. Nick has given evidence in the Family Court of Australia, the Federal Circuit Court and the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

Nick has provided expert advice and reports in the following types of matters:

- Economic loss claims including loss of profits, both past and future (goodwill), price erosion and additional costs
- Valuation of various financial interests including shares, businesses, companies, trusts, partnerships, employee share scheme entitlements and superannuation interests
- Unrecorded revenue and its impact on valuations
- Disputes arising from the purchase and sale of a business
- Personal economic loss claims including loss of business income, loss of financial dependency and loss of superannuation entitlements

Highly regarded in his field, Nick has written technical papers and presented at numerous legal seminars and forums. Nick is committed to helping the legal profession make sense of the dollars in dispute resolution.
