SUBJECT: Accessibility Standards for Customer Service

AUTHORITY: Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act 2005 (AODA)

REFERENCES: Accessibility Standards for Customer Service Ontario Regulation 429/07

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 1, 2012

BACKGROUND

Through the establishment of the Accessibility Standards for Customer Service policy and supporting procedures and practices that respect the dignity and independence of persons with disabilities, National Event Supply (NES) is reflecting its commitment to sound governance, accountability and focus on services excellence in fulfilling its version.

PURPOSE

National Event Supply is committed to giving people with disabilities the same opportunity to access NES' goods and services and allowing them to benefit from the same services in the same place and in a similar way as other customers. To ensure support for and compliance with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005 \(AODA\) and relevant regulations, NES will make reasonable efforts to ensure that it provides accessible customer service to people with various kinds of disabilities and respects the core principles of independence, dignity, integration and equal opportunity, as defined herein.

DEFINITIONS

Taken from the Guide to the Accessibility Standards for Customer Service, Ontario Regulation 429/07

Assistive Device – means an auxiliary aid such as communication aid, cognition aid, personal mobility aid and medical aid (i.e. canes, crutches, wheelchairs, hearing aids, etc.) to access and benefit from the goods and services offered by National Event Supply.

Barrier – means anything that prevents a person with a disability from fully participating in all aspects of society because of the disability. Barriers may include a physical, architectural and attitudinal barrier as well as an information or communication barrier, technological barriers, a policy, procedure or a practice.

Disability - means any degree of physical disability including, but not limited to, diabetes, epilepsy, brain injury, paralysis, amputation, lack of coordination, blindness or visual impediment, deafness or hearing impediment, muteness or speech impediment, reliance on a guide dog, other service animal, wheelchair or other remedial appliance or device; developmental disability; learning disability or dysfunction in understanding or using symbols or spoken language; mental disorder; or injury for which benefits were claimed or received under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act, 1997.

Guide Dog or Service Animal - a “guide dog” means a guide dog as defined in section 1 of the Blind Persons’ Rights Act. For the purpose of this policy, an animal is a service animal of a person with a disability if:

- A) It is readily apparent that the animal is used by the person for reasons relating to his or her disability: or
- B) The person provides a letter from a physician or nurse confirming that the person requires the animal for a reasons relating to the disability.

Legislation - for the purpose of this policy, refer to the Accessibility for Ontarians Disability Act \(AODA\) and Ontario Regulation 429/07, Accessibility Standards for Customer Service.

Support Person - means in relation to a person with a disability, another person who accompanies him or her in order to help with communication, mobility, personal care or medical needs in relation to access of goods or services.

A support person may be a paid support worker, a volunteer, a friend or a family member; the support person does not need to have special training or qualifications.

PRINCIPLES USED

Dignity - service is provided in a way that allows the person with a disability to maintain their sense of self-respect and the respect of other people.

Equal Opportunity - service is provided to a person with a disability in such a way that they have an opportunity to access NES’s goods or services equal to that given to others without a disability.

Independence – when a person with a disability has the freedom to do things on their own without unnecessary help or interference from others.

Integration – service is provided in a way that allows the person with a disability to benefit from the same services, in the same place and in the same or similar way as other customers, unless an alternate measure is necessary to enable a person with a disability to access goods or services.

POLICY PROVISIONS

Accessible Customer Service:

National Event Supply shall make reasonable efforts to ensure that its policies, procedures and practices as amended from time to time are consistent with the following principles by establishing a set of Customer Service Guidelines in support of this policy.

- A) The goods or services shall be provided in a manner that respects the dignity and independence of persons with disabilities
- B) The provision of goods or services to persons with disabilities and others shall be integrated unless an alternate measure is necessary, whether temporarily or on a permanent basis, to enable a person with a disability to obtain, use or benefit from the goods or services.

C) Persons with a disability shall be given an opportunity equal to that given to others to obtain, use and benefit from the goods or services.

ASSISTIVE DEVICES

National Event Supply permits a person with a disability to use and keep with them their own personal assistive devices to obtain, use or benefit from the goods or services offered by National Event Supply.

Where National Event Supply owned assistive devices are available, appropriate staff within the applicable department will be knowledgeable of the presence of these devices and trained in the use of the assistive devices. Staff will be available to assist with NES owned assistive devices if requested for use by an individual.

COMMUNICATION

When acting on behalf of National Event Supply and communicating with a person with a disability, do so in a respectful manner that takes into account the person's disability.

SERVICE ANIMALS AND SUPPORT PERSONS

National Event Supply shall permit a person with a disability, who requires to be accompanied by a support person and/ or service animal into all National Event Supply premises that are owned or operated National Event Supply's facilities. Both persons (if applicable) are permitted to enter the premises together and the person with a disability will have access to their support person and/or service animal.

A support person, when assisting or accompanying a person with a disability to obtain, use or benefit from NES' goods and/or services, will be permitted to attend at no charge where an admission fee is applicable.

National Event Supply shall permit a person with a disability to be accompanied by a guide dog or other service animal into all NES owned and operated public facilities and will ensure that the person is permitted to keep the animal with him or her unless the animal is otherwise excluded by law.

If the service animal is excluded by law from the facility, National Event Supply will ensure that other measures are available to enable the person with a disability to obtain, use or benefit from National Event Supply services and facilities.

NOTICE OF TEMPORARY DISRUPTION

Public Notice of Service Disruption as per Appendix A & B, as amended from time to time shall be provided when facilities or services that people with disabilities and/or community members usually use to access NES' goods or services are temporarily unavailable or if the goods or services are expected in the near future to be temporarily unavailable, in whole or in part.
