

Sydney Axelrod, MA
Foundation Manager
Home Care Aide Council
46 Farwell St, 2nd Floor
Newton, MA 02460

Sydney Axelrod is the Foundation Manager at the Home Care Aide Council, a non-profit trade association with over 100 home care agency and community-based organization members throughout Massachusetts. The Home Care Aide Foundation, the 501c3 arm of the Council, implements best practice initiatives and evidence-based training curricula supported through grant funding and donations. Together, the Home Care Aide Council and Foundation are committed to enhancing quality of care throughout the home care industry by focusing on the advancement of the home care aide workforce.

Through her role as Foundation Manager, Sydney oversees all grant efforts of the organization, including grant writing, execution of grant activity, program evaluation, and managing community partnerships. She is responsible for training curriculum management, development, and facilitation, as well as event planning, and general administration of the Home Care Aide Foundation.

Prior to joining the Council, Sydney received an MA in Peace and Conflict Studies from The University of North Carolina Greensboro. Her work in the Greensboro community focused on developing curricula and expanding access for conflict resolution education training across private, public, and academic sectors. Sydney received her Bachelor's degree from SUNY Geneseo in Sociology and Conflict Studies.
