

What you need to know:

MEASLES

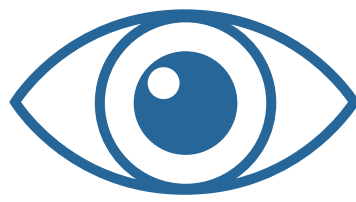

What is measles?

Measles is a highly contagious virus that lives in the nose and throat mucus.

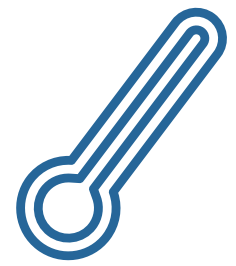

What are the symptoms?

Rash

Red, Watery Eyes

High Fever

Cough

Runny Nose

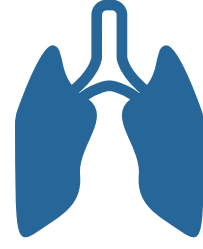

Other Symptoms

Ear Infection

Diarrhea

Lung Infection
(pneumonia)

Brain Swelling

Death

In Severe Cases

How does it spread?

90%

of non-immune people in close proximity
will become infected

Airborne

from coughing or sneezing

Contact

with infected surfaces

2 Hour

survival time without a host

What can you do?

Talk to a doctor.

Stay home!

Always
wash your hands.

Stay up to date on your measles vaccine.

Sources:

United States Center for Disease Control