RABBLEON IS CHANGING THE WAY THAT PARTIES ARE PLANNED
RabbleOn.com, launching April 1, 2019, allows party hosts to book the best event vendors instantly.

DALLAS, TEXAS – RabbleOn is excited to announce the launch of RabbleOn.com, an online marketplace connecting party hosts with event vendors. RabbleOn is changing the way baby showers, birthday parties, office picnics, and more are planned by making it easier than ever to search, review, and instantly book event vendor products and services. Removing the back and forth communication regarding availability, providing transparent pricing upfront, and utilizing a secure payment-payment processing system are fantastic benefits and timesavers for both event vendors and hosts.

Launching April 1, 2019, RabbleOn will serve Dallas Fort-Worth with plans to expand to other major cities across the country.

“We are thrilled to launch RabbleOn, an innovator in the event planning industry. Similar to the way that Uber made booking a taxi easy, RabbleOn will make planning life’s celebratory moments convenient,” says co-founder of RabbleOn, Brandon Waghorne.

All products and services offered through RabbleOn's marketplace are from hand-selected, small-to-medium sized businesses. “The talent and entrepreneurial spirit of the event vendors in DFW has blown our minds,” says Waghorne. Current vendors include Easy Sliders, Sleep Dreams Slumber Co, StarkMagic, DFW Metroplex Bubble Ball, Lushra, LCI Media, and Flower Gals Co. RabbleOn is actively looking to partner with more event vendors.

About the Company: RabbleOn was founded in 2017 by co-founders Brendon Quick, Brandon Waghorne, Genevieve Quick and Ashley Collette. A Dallas-based start-up, RabbleOn was born out of SMU's Executive MBA program.
