The student should be warned that they may be contacted by immigration to confirm there is no conflict and that they will not breach the conditions of their visa. If they choose to proceed, the eCoE should be created despite the warning of the conflicting eCoE and a comment entered into PRISMS along the lines of "Student wishes to supplement their primary course with some English language lessons".
8. In all above cases, appropriate comments must be entered into PRISMS and into Stars. The student should be notified that they will need to take the eCoE created to an immigration office to confirm their visa status and to confirm that they have approval to proceed with the course at Greenwich.
