MEET OUR KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Angela Gaffney

President | Essential Health & Wellness

Angela Gaffney is the catalyst for healthy transformation and helps others ignite change through her speaking, writing and coaching. After surviving a personal health crisis that nearly took her life, Angela devoted intense time, education and energy into regaining her own health and becoming a Certified Health Coach. Calling on her personal and professional experience, Angela has shared these same proven strategies to help hundreds of others lose weight, boost energy, eliminate stress and find balance in life. It is possible to achieve health while fulfilling your professional and personal goals; Angela will show you how to make it happen!
