Please read it thoroughly.

CODE OF CONDUCT

BA's Code of Conduct provides a guideline that assists in ensuring that the students maintain a satisfactory level of attendance, behaviour and course participation.

Maintaining Good Standing requires:

- Satisfactory attendance and punctuality
- Completion of all course work and assessments
- Satisfactory behaviour

Satisfactory attendance is considered to be full-time attendance at school, or in the event of absence, a satisfactory explanation of the absence.

- An absence is defined as any non-attendance at a class when normal classes are in operation
- An absence is considered to be unsatisfactory if it is not explained or the explanation, in the view of BA is inadequate or inappropriate

Good Standing is lost when a student:

- is absent without a written notice to the school and your teacher 2 working days prior to his/her absence
- fails to complete the course work or assessments without satisfactory explanation
- behaves in a way that is inappropriate and inclusive of staff and student rights

Good Standing privileges are reinstated when:

- All absences are satisfactorily explained with a note from a parent/guardian; or
- All missed work or assessments are completed or demonstrated to the relevant subject teacher within the time negotiated with the teacher; or
- The behaviour management issue is satisfactorily resolved

Once a student has lost a stage of Good Standing, further breaches will incur loss of Good Standing at the next level.
