BOHEMIAN

Bohemian style, also known as boho-chic, has come to mean free-spirited and draws influences from hippie culture. Elements of woven decor, overflowing florals, and an abundance of drapery. Think fringing, macramé, patterns, and a broad color palette mixed up with a free-spirited take on the traditional wedding. These effortlessly beautiful ideas, featuring all things ethereal, earthly, and exquisite, are sure to add that desired bohemian flair.

MINIMALIST

Far from boring, minimalist weddings aren't the absence of fun or even bright colors. Instead, they are intentionally toned down. Focused on just a few details that are really meaningful to the couple. Favoring neutral wedding color palettes, and lots of greenery, Minimalism is a "less is more" decor principle that modern couples are making their own for ultra-chic weddings.

RUSTIC CHIC

A sophisticated blend of country, vintage, and ethereal wedding styles, a rustic chic affair is often categorized by unique woven elements, floral-adorned tablescapes, wooden backdrops, and farm-to-table features. Utilizing organic nature inspired elements, whitewashed chairs and muted metallic accents paired with loose greenery that seems as if it was pre-existing to create a natural, laid-back yet elegant vibe.

GARDEN

Surrounded by blooms, an alfresco affair will never go out of style. Using nature as your backdrop, gardens are the perfect setting to get married if you're dreaming of a fairytale wedding. To bring your botanic vision to life, think watercolor details, floral motifs, and soft pastels. Set the tone with oversized bouquets and other natural elements.
