

Quality Matters... Now More Than Ever

The National Association for Healthcare Quality (NAHQ) is here for quality professionals during this healthcare crisis.

As our healthcare professionals combat the effects of COVID-19, NAHQ offers quality professionals the opportunity to remain relevant and demonstrate indispensable value to their facilities and systems.

Enjoy savings of 25% off on CPHQ® certification and prep products through May 26, 2020.

About the CPHQ

The Certified Professional in Healthcare Quality® (CPHQ) is the only accredited certification in the field and provides the industry standard of professional achievement. The CPHQ allows you to:

- Demonstrate your competence
- Distinguish yourself from other healthcare quality professionals
- Showcase your preparedness to improve outcomes across the continuum of care

About CPHQ Prep

Prepare for the exam with NAHQ's comprehensive CPHQ Prep program. Unlike other programs, NAHQ's focuses on practical application instead of recall. The Prep Package includes:

- Online Review Course to fit your learning pace and style
- HQ Solutions, the official companion book
- Practice Exam to assess your readiness for the CPHQ exam
