Globalscope Spring Conference 2019 Paris

GLOBALSCOPE

55 independent M&A firms. 1 global family.

Globalscope Partners celebrated its 25th semi-annual conference in Paris, in Spring 2019, co-hosted by local firms Atout Capital and CMW Corporate Finance. Member firms from 37 countries convened to discuss and collaborate on global merger and acquisition activities. In 2018, Globalscope members completed M&A transactions with deal values totaling over Euros 2.3 billion, and in the six months period ending 31 March 2019 deals totaling over Euros 1.6 billion.

Jim Keeling, President of Globalscope and Chairman of Corbett Keeling Corporate Finance, said, “We were thrilled to hold this event in Paris for the second time. The history and ambiance of the city provided a perfect setting for our 25th conference. Member firms enjoyed a dinner cruise on the Seine and tour of the Palace at Versailles to refresh them following 2 days of robust deal discussions and debate about the global M&A landscape.”

The conference held its semi-annual Oscar Awards ceremony, honoring the achievements and excellence of both member firms and individual dealmakers within the global organization. The winners for this past 6-month period are as follows:

Most Active Member: Tie between Paramax Corporation (New York), and Carlsquare GmbH (Berlin), for completing 8 deals each

Most Valuable Transaction: Silverpeak, LLP (London) for the successful representation of its client Ticketer

Flagship Deal: Aventis Capital (Warsaw), and Carlsquare GmbH (Berlin), which completed a transaction representing their clients Kaps and Tacco

A highlight of the conference was the unveiling of the new Globalscope website, www.globalscopepartners.com. This followed a year-long brand review, which identified the core values of the collective member firms as camaraderie, relentless entrepreneurialism and sector expertise. In recognition of the strong local roots and yet very close relationships between firms, Globalscope Partners will now be recognized as 55 independent M&A firms. 1 global family.

Hervé LeRoy, CEO of CMW, said, “Hosting the Paris Conference provided an opportunity to bring together some of the top middle-market investment bankers to collaborate on transactions in the consumer, financial services, industrials, life sciences, services, and technology, media and telecom sectors, where Globalscope member firms have substantial industry expertise. Eric Parent, CEO of Atout, added, “France is on its way to doing more and more M&A transactions and is a fertile ground for foreign investors. We welcome their investment in our country.”

The next semi-annual conference will be held in New Delhi, India in October 2019.
