

Antoinette Scerri

Tax Advisory Director

antoinette.scerri@nexiabt.com

Antoinette is a Certified Public Accountant and graduated in Accountancy (Hons) from the University of Malta in 2007. She holds a Diploma in Taxation and a Diploma in VAT compliance and is a member of the Malta Institute of Accountants and of the Malta Institute of Financial Services Practitioners.

Since graduating in 2007, Antoinette has always been involved in Indirect and Direct tax matters first by joining a medium sized firm and then by joining Nexia BT's tax advisory services Department in 2010 where she now is the director within the firm's tax team. Antoinette assists clients in tax negotiations and in obtaining advance revenue rulings and tax confirmations from the tax authorities and is also involved in advising a number of multinational companies, financial institutions, funds and high-net worth individuals and is often involved in cross-border and local financing transactions and re-organisations.