

MARY SUE MILLIKEN & JOSH SCHWEITZER

Mary Sue Milliken is a renowned chef, cookbook author, and television personality. A pioneer of world cuisine since the creation of City Café and CITY Restaurant in Los Angeles in the 1980's, today Mary Sue is most notably recognized as a preeminent ambassador of modern Mexican cuisine with her Border Grill Restaurants (Las Vegas, Los Angeles, LAX Airport, The Huntington Library) and Trucks along with her business partner of 38 years, Chef Susan Feniger. She also serves on the boards of both Share Our Strength and The James Beard Foundation and is passionate about food policy, working with Pew, LA Food Policy Council, and Monterey Bay Aquarium to help shape sustainable food systems.

Mary Sue's husband, Josh Schweitzer is an accomplished architect, artist, designer and food lover. He founded Schweitzer BIM in 1987 and has designed projects ranging from retail spaces to synagogues, large scale office buildings, furniture, jewelry and homes. Josh's work can be seen around the world with completed projects in Los Angeles, New York City, Chile, Ecuador, Japan, Korea and the Philippines.

The couple met in 1984, reside in Los Angeles, have two grown sons, a small dog, large garden and a shared passion for food, art, design, cycling and traveling.
