HOLLYWOOD

LOS ANGELES PERFORMANCE TOUR

Day 1:

- Meet your Tour Director and board your private motor coach.
- Take a hiking tour up Mount Hollywood and admire the sights from the vantage point of the Griffith Observatory. The famous astronomy center has been featured in countless films and TV shows, and it features views of downtown LA and the iconic Hollywood sign.
- Dive into the refreshing blue waters of the Pacific Ocean! Enjoy free time on a local beach. Have lunch at a beachfront cafe or explore local shops selling artisanal wares.
- Enjoy dinner at the Farmers Market, dating back to July 1934. The historic LA landmark features produce vendors, food stalls, and restaurants.

Day 2:

- Spend your morning at “the Happiest Place on Earth!” Enjoy free time inside Disneyland[®] Park, featuring iconic rides like the Haunted Mansion, Pirates of the Caribbean, and “it’s a small world.” Visit Walt Disney’s original theme park and celebrate the worlds of yesterday, fantasy, and tomorrow with timeless attractions, dazzling entertainment, and magical moments that last a lifetime.
- Travel far, far away to the brand-new land of Star Wars: Galaxy’s Edge. Live out your own Star Wars story, fly the Millennium Falcon, and explore a remote outpost where adventure awaits.
- Hone your skills at a Disney Performing Arts workshop or experience “the performance of a lifetime” when you dance, sing, or play for resort visitors from around the world.
- At Disney California Adventure[®] Park, you’re invited to explore eight exciting lands where the stories of Disney, Pixar, and beyond come to life! Race through the desert on Radiator Springs Racers, feel the wind on your face in Soarin’ Around the World, brave the thrilling rapids on the Grizzly River Run, or become a living toy with Woody and Buzz at Pixar Pier.

Day 3:

- Have fun in the sun at Knott’s Berry Farm, one of America’s top ten theme parks! Built on the site of a former berry farm, the park features over thirty rides, including water rides, roller coasters, and historical rides.
- Enjoy the opportunity to perform for fellow park-goers.
- After dinner, take in a movie at TCL Chinese Theatre on the historical Hollywood Walk of Fame. Commonly known by its original name, Grauman’s Chinese Theatre, the venue dates back to 1927 and has been home to numerous film premieres. The front of the theatre is lined with the handprints and footprints of famous movie stars, directors, producers, and Hollywood icons.

Day 4:

- Journey to Universal Studios Hollywood[™], including a studio tour or a trip to the Wizarding World of Harry Potter. The park houses one of the oldest film studios in Hollywood still in use, rides and attractions based on blockbuster films, and a number of restaurants, shops, and movie theatres.
- Perform for park visitors at Universal CityWalk.
- After dinner, visit the Walt Disney Concert Hall, designed by Frank Gehry. The performance venue is known for the modern stainless steel curves that make up its facade. You may even catch the Los Angeles Philharmonic putting on a show.

Day 5:

- Explore the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, the largest art museum in the west. Its 150,000 works catalog prehistoric to contemporary art, and the museum also offers film and concert series throughout the year.
- Go behind the scenes on a tour of Hollywood’s major sights, including the Walk of Fame, El Capitan Theatre, Grauman’s Egyptian Theatre, famous film locations, and the Oscars Red Carpet Awards Walk. You’ll also learn the history of how Hollywood became the capital of the film industry.
- Dive into the recording industry when you visit The GRAMMY Museum. Opened in 2008, the museum celebrates all aspects of the music industry, from technology to varied artforms and performers, and explores how music impacts our society and culture.
- Depart for home.
