

NEW ORLEANS PERFORMANCE TOUR

The Crescent City has a diverse history and a colorful culture. Our New Orleans performance tours let students participate in clinics, watch live shows, perform at city venues, and get a better grasp on the birthplace of jazz.

Why Brightspark?

Safety And Security

We regularly conduct strict audits of our vendors, ensuring they act in accordance with safety, security, and quality standards.

Our Tour Directors

You deserve the best, so we only use experienced and enthusiastic Tour Directors who are experts on their destinations.

Quality, Custom Tours

Our programs are designed for you, by you. From STEM-based DC tours to performance trips to some of our country's top music cities, we have a destination for every budget and every passion.

Industry Experience

With over 50 years of experience providing custom tours, Brightspark is a leader in student travel.

Travel Protection & Incident Coverage

With our 24/7 emergency hotline, comprehensive general insurance, and an industry-leading refund guarantee program, we've got you covered.

NEW ORLEANS PERFORMANCE TOUR

Day 1:

- Meet your Tour Director and board your private motor coach.
- Discover local ecology on a Cajun Pride Swamp Tour. This wild adventure is located only 25 minutes from the city in the Manchac swamp, where the bayous are teeming with wildlife and exotic plants.
- Get a behind-the-scenes look at the Crescent City's most iconic tradition at Mardi Gras World. Watch artists build floats, learn the history of the parade, try on festive costumes, and even sample the city's famous King Cake.
- Perform at the Toulouse Street Wharf.
- Enjoy a dinner and jazz cruise on the Mississippi River aboard the Steamboat Natchez.

Day 2:

- Hone your skills at performance clinics led by artists at a local university.
- Spend your morning in the historic French Quarter, the city's oldest neighborhood, and learn about the different cultures that gave the city its distinct identity.
- Walk through Jackson Square, stopping at St. Louis Cathedral and The Presbytère, and visit the French Market.
- Enjoy free time for lunch – don't forget to try traditional beignets at a local café.
- Perform at the Washington Artillery Park Amphitheater.
- Explore Frenchmen Street, a hub for great music, local cuisine, and layers of urban culture.
- Take in a live jazz show during dinner at The Maison.

Day 3:

- Begin your day at the National WWII Museum, which tells the story of "the war that changed the world" from the perspective of the American experience.
- Perform at the National WWII Museum.
- Tour the New Orleans Mint, which operated as a branch of the U.S. Mint from 1838 to 1861, and again from 1879 to 1909.
- Visit the New Orleans Jazz National Historical Park in the illustrious Tremé neighborhood near the French Quarter. The park was established in 1994 as a way to document and celebrate the origins and contributions of jazz music and musicians. The site even houses a performance venue.
- Discover the city's darker side learning about voodoo, zombies, vampires, and other haunting phenomena on a Ghost City Tour.

Day 4:

- Discover the city's Garden District, a collection of some of the best-preserved historic mansions in the south. You can spot the St. Charles Streetcar (still in operation) as you walk past diverse homes and gardens.
- Take a tour of Lafayette Cemetery and its ornate tombs dating back to the 1800s.
- Walk through Tulane University as you make your way to Audobon Park. The park's ancient oaks make it an ideal spot for picnics. It also features a zoo, an aquarium, an insectarium, and a nature center.
- Depart for home.

