Taking into account the nature of the Processing, Cloudvisor shall assist Client by appropriate technical and organizational measures, insofar as this is possible, for the fulfilment of Client's obligation to respond to a Data Subject Request under Data Protection Laws and Regulations. In addition, to the extent Client, in its use of the Services, does not have the ability to address a Data Subject Request, Cloudvisor shall upon Client's request provide commercially reasonable efforts to assist Client in responding to such Data Subject Request, to the extent Cloudvisor is legally permitted to do so and the response to such Data Subject Request is required under Data Protection Laws and Regulations. To the extent legally permitted, Client shall be responsible for any costs arising from Cloudvisor's provision of such assistance.

4. CLOUDVISOR'S PERSONNEL

4.1. Confidentiality. Cloudvisor shall ensure that its personnel engaged in the Processing of Personal Data have committed themselves to confidentiality and non-disclosure.

5. AUTHORIZATION REGARDING SUB-PROCESSORS

5.1. Appointment of Sub-processors. Client acknowledges and agrees that Cloudvisor may engage third-party Sub-processors in connection with the provision of the Services.

5.2. List of Current Sub-processors and Notification of New Sub-processors.

5.2.1. Cloudvisor shall make available to Client the current list of Sub-processors used by Cloudvisor via <https://www.cloudvisor.io/gdpr>. Such Sub-processor list shall include the identities and details of those Sub-processors and their country of location ("Sub-processor List"). The Sub-processor List as of the date of execution of this DPA, or as of the date of publication (as applicable), is hereby, or shall be (as applicable), authorized by Client. In any event, the Sub-processor List shall be deemed authorized by Client unless it provides a written reasonable objection for reasons related to the GDPR within ten (10) business days following the publication of the Sub-processor List. Client may reasonably object for reasons related to the GDPR to Cloudvisor's use of an existing Sub-processor by providing a written objection to info@cloudvisor.io. In the event Client reasonably objects to an existing Sub-processor, as permitted in the preceding sentences, Client may, as a sole remedy, terminate the applicable Agreement and this DPA with respect only to those Services which cannot be provided by Cloudvisor without the use of the objected-to Sub-processor by providing written notice to Cloudvisor provided that all amounts due under the Agreement before the termination date with respect to the Processing at issue shall be duly paid to Cloudvisor. Client will have no further claims against Cloudvisor due to (i) past use of approved Sub-processors prior to the date of objection or (ii) the termination of the Agreement (including, without limitation, requesting refunds) and the DPA in the situation described in this paragraph.

5.2.2. Cloudvisor shall provide notification of any new Sub-processor(s) before authorizing such new Sub-processor(s) to Process Personal Data in connection with the provision of the Services.

- 5.3. Objection Right for New Sub-processors. Client may reasonably object to Cloudvisor's use of a new Sub-processor for reasons related to the GDPR by notifying Cloudvisor promptly in writing within three (3) business days after receipt of Cloudvisor's notice in accordance with the mechanism set out in Section 5.2 and such written objection shall include the reasons related to the GDPR for objecting to Cloudvisor's use of such new Sub-processor. Failure to object to such new Sub-processor in writing within three (3) business days following Cloudvisor's notice shall be deemed as acceptance of the new Sub-Processor. In the event Client reasonably objects to a new Sub-processor, as permitted in the preceding sentences, Cloudvisor will use reasonable efforts to make available to Client a change in the Services or recommend a commercially reasonable change to Client's use of the Services to avoid Processing of Personal Data by the objected-to new Sub-processor without unreasonably burdening the Client. If Cloudvisor is unable to make available such change within a reasonable period of time, which shall not exceed thirty (30) days, Client may, as a sole remedy, terminate the applicable Agreement and this DPA with respect only to those Services which cannot be provided by Cloudvisor without the use of the objected-to new Sub-processor by providing written notice to Cloudvisor provided that all amounts due under the Agreement before the termination date with respect to the Processing at issue shall be duly paid to Cloudvisor. Until a decision is made regarding the new Sub-processor, Cloudvisor may temporarily suspend the Processing of the affected Personal Data. Client will have no further claims against Cloudvisor due to the termination of the Agreement (including, without limitation, requesting refunds) and/or the DPA in the situation described in this paragraph.
- 5.4. Agreements with Sub-processors. Cloudvisor shall respect the conditions referred to in Articles 28.2 and 28.4 of the GDPR when engaging another processor for Processing Personal Data provided by Client. In accordance with Articles 28.7 and 28.8 of the GDPR, if and when the European Commission lays down the standard contractual clauses referred to in such Article, the Parties may revise this DPA in good faith to adjust it to such standard contractual clauses.

- 6.2. Audits. Upon Client's written request at reasonable intervals, and subject to the confidentiality obligations set forth in the Agreement and this DPA, Cloudvisor shall make available to Client that is not a competitor of Cloudvisor (or Client's independent, third-party auditor that is not a competitor of Cloudvisor) information about Cloudvisor's compliance with this DPA. At Client's cost and expense, Cloudvisor shall allow for and contribute to audits, including inspections, conducted by the controller or another auditor mandated by the controller (who is not a direct or indirect competitor of Cloudvisor) provided that the parties shall agree on the scope, timing and conditions of such audits and inspections. Any information provided under this Section and any audits or inspections and the results therefrom, including the documents reflecting the outcome of the audit and/or the inspection, shall only be used by Client to assess compliance with this DPA, and shall not be used for any other purpose or disclosed to any third party without Cloudvisor's prior written approval and, upon Cloudvisor's first request, Client shall return all records or documentation in Client's possession or control provided by Cloudvisor's in the context of the audit and/or the inspection.

Cloudvisor shall make reasonable efforts to identify the cause of such Personal Data Incident and take those steps as Cloudvisor deems necessary and reasonable in order to remediate the cause of such a Personal Data Incident to the extent the remediation is within Cloudvisor's reasonable control. The obligations herein shall not apply to incidents that are caused by Client or Client's users. In any event, Client will be the party responsible for notifying supervisory authorities and/or concerned data subjects (where required by Data Protection Laws and Regulations).

8. RETURN AND DELETION OF PERSONAL DATA

Subject to the Agreement, Cloudvisor shall, at the choice of Client, delete or return the Personal Data to Client after the end of the provision of the Services relating to processing, and shall delete existing copies unless applicable law requires storage of the Personal Data. In any event, to the extent required or allowed by applicable law, Cloudvisor may retain one copy of the Personal Data for evidence purposes and/or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims and/or to comply with applicable laws and regulations. If the Client requests the Personal Data to be returned, the Personal Data shall be returned in the format generally available for Cloudvisor's Clients.

9. AUTHORIZED AFFILIATES

- 9.1. Contractual Relationship. The Parties acknowledge and agree that, by executing the DPA, the Client enters into the DPA on behalf of itself and, as applicable, in the name and on behalf of its Authorized Affiliates, thereby establishing a separate DPA between Cloudvisor. Each Authorized Affiliate agrees to be bound by the obligations under this DPA.
