

Custom Injection Molding

molding dynamics, inc.

Quality Technician

Ensure products meet the required quality standards and specifications by developing and enforcing good inspection and manufacturing practices, validating processes and providing documentation.

Requirements:

High school diploma required. ASQ Certification preferred. Be detail oriented. May require lifting of 35lbs. Candidate must have basic computer skills, Excel a plus. Will be required to use various measuring devices, calculator. Must be able to follow all safety and plant rules. Ability to read and interpret blueprints and product drawings.

Essential Duties:

Perform receiving, in-process, and final inspections.

Follow control plans for the jobs that are running.

Perform visual and dimensional tests of parts to ensure product meets specifications.

Convey results to appropriate parties and document on paper, and or computer the results of testing.

Technician will set out required tools, labels, blue books, prior to production runs.

Train new operators on various jobs, and verify training was successful.

Other duties as required.