TBEIC is Ohio's only energy incubator, helping technology startups in the energy industry innovate and grow. TBEIC provides mentoring services and resources to its portfolio companies, acting as a matchmaker between startups and research institutions, manufacturers, and utilities. The facility includes office, event, coworking space and the Energy Integration Lab, a well-equipped space for testing energy storage and IoT solutions. Since its creation in 2012, TBEIC has assisted nearly 200 energy startups and facilitated over $60 million in private investment.
