2019 IQGeo Meetup
October 16 – 17

Accommodation

The Meetup venue, the Hilton Garden Inn, Union Station in Denver, reserved a number of rooms for IQGeo and offered our delegates an early bird discount, which applied to all bookings made up until 13th September. The hotel now has very little availability left, if any, so if you still need to find accommodation please see below a list of alternative hotels in Denver, either a short walk or taxi ride away from the Meetup venue.

Please note that we cannot guarantee availability, quality or costs at or of any of these hotels.
