How many times can I take the SSAT?

A Standard test is a group administration of the SSAT held at sites worldwide on eight Saturdays each year. There is no limit to the number of Standard tests you can take in a testing year (August 1–July 31). Any test not given on a Standard date is considered a Flex test, including tests administered to individuals or small groups by member schools and consultants. You may take the Flex test only once per testing year, in addition to the Standard test administrations.

What if I can't test on a Standard date?

If none of the Standard test dates work for you, you can contact an educational consultant or a school to which you are applying and ask to take a Flex test. Some regional groups of schools also administer the SSAT on dates they determine. Visit ssat.org/flex for more information on Flex testing. Additional fees apply when taking a Flex test with an educational consultant.

Sunday/Sabbath testing

SSAT provides a limited number of test sites for Sunday testing. Sunday testing is available for students who obtain proper clergy approval. Read more at ssat.org/TA.

How will I know my scores are available?

Scores are released within two weeks after receipt of test materials. Accessing your online score report and sending and canceling score reports is free. (Cancellations must be done prior to school score release.)

We also offer options for quick access to your scores if you prefer to be notified as soon as they are ready or wish to receive hard copies:

- + Score alert via text or email: $15
- + Score reports mailed to your home: $25
(Scores cannot be mailed to schools to which you are applying)
- + Score reports sent via FedEx to your home
(U.S./Canada: $35; International: $65)

All fees are non-refundable.

ssat.org/scores

Who gets my scores?

Sending your score reports online to as many member schools of The Enrollment Management Association as you choose is free. You designate which member schools will receive your scores—either before or after you take the SSAT. You may choose to wait until you have seen your scores before sending them to schools. Be sure to test early enough in the year for schools to receive your scores by their application deadlines.

Additionally, if you want your current school or advisor to receive a copy of your score report, you can designate them as an advisor using your SSAT account.

Can I see my writing sample?

Families can purchase their student's SSAT writing sample for just $20. Writing samples are not released to students and families with test scores unless ordered separately.

How do I interpret my SSAT scores?

Your SSAT score report will provide detailed explanations to help you understand each of your scores. Visit ssat.org/scores for detailed score interpretation information.

We also offer free webinars on how to read your score report. Check out the schedule on page 15.

Because Character Matters

Schools want to get to know you, and the character traits you exhibit are just as important as your math and verbal skills. Now, there is a way for you to show them those traits—The Character Skills Snapshot!

A school may ask you to take The Character Skills Snapshot to add to your application portfolio. The Snapshot:

- + provides a snapshot in time of your character traits
- + gives admission directors a more complete picture of who you are
- + is an online assessment that takes about 20-30 minutes to complete
- + is free with your SSAT registration*
- + is NOT a high-stakes test—there are no wrong answers!
- + results can be sent to member schools just like your SSAT scores

**Non-SSAT test takers pay a $35 fee to take The Snapshot*
