Summer Reading Assignment

This summer, your reading assignment will include two texts. You will be reading Homer's Odyssey and Paul's letter to the Galatians. While reading The Odyssey, please annotate for the following themes/topics:

- hospitality
- effective and ineffective leadership
- the relationship between the gods and men
- the ancient Greek view of death

I would like you to read Galatians four times this summer. I have given you a printout of the text with the chapter headings taken out and you must use this version. While reading Galatians, please annotate in the margins for answers to the following questions:

- What strikes you as interesting or confusing?
- What is the true Gospel? How can we discern the true Gospel from a false one?
- What is God like?
- What are people like?

I would suggest annotating in a different color for each question so that you can keep them straight. Or, you may choose to take notes on a separate piece of paper.
