*Want to get a jump start on upcoming deals? Meet the major New York City players at one of our upcoming events!

Israel Berger & Associates, having combined (powerful) forces with Viridian Energy & Environmental, formed a new company for their combined operations, VIDARIS Inc. IBA president and now VIDARIS CEO Israel Berger (along with senior principal Adrian Tuluca and president & COO Marc Weissbach) says that the merged companies will integrate shared expertise in building envelope, restoration, energy efficiency, commissioning, and sustainable design/construction. Vidaris' focus is on servicing a niche marketplace for specialty consultancies in the A/E/C and real estate industries that offer outstanding consulting and monitoring services for high-performance buildings and specialty structures. Vidaris, HQ'd in NYC, has 125 employees in three offices in NY, CT and MA, providing services worldwide. For more info on our newly renamed but longtime sponsor, click here.
